NEGROES SOLID FOR PATTERSON IN TENNESSEE

White Republicans Support Independent Judiciary Ticket Opposed by Governor.

BITTER CAMPAIGN ENDS IN THE VOLUNTEER STATE

Voters Today Will Choose Between the Patterson Judicial Ticket and That Supported by Independent Democrats and White Republicans. Pardon of Cooper Figures.

Nashville, Tenn., August 3.—Tonight marked the closing of one of the most strenuous political campaigns this state has ever known. Indeed, the fight has been so bitter and lines have been so closely drawn that families are divided, father against son and brother against brother.

Governor Patterson, who is a candidate for reelection at the November election, has stumped the state from the Mississippi to the mountains in interest of the straight democratic judiciary ticket.

Negroes for Patterson Ticket.

A full supreme court and court of civil appeals will be chosen tomorrow. The negro registration throughout the state has been unprecedentedly heavy, and it is conceded that the negro, almost to a man, will support the regular democratic ticket. The white republicans will give their support to the independent ticket.

It is predicted that the vote tomorrow will be the heaviest ever polled in the state.

The campaign closed in Nashville tonight with a monster demonstration by the "regulars." Fully 10,000 people, massed on the north side of the public square, gave Governor Patterson a tumultuous reception and cheered his speech to the echo. After the speaking Governor Patterson again took a train, this time for Memphis, where he goes to cast his vote tomorrow.

MOTHERS OF MANY CHILDREN URGE THEODORE ROOSEVELT TO INSPECT THEIR BROODS

Humorous Incidents of the Colonel's Visit Among the Toilers—They All Called Him "Teddy" and Told Him He Was Looking Fine.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., August 3.—Theodore Roosevelt traveled for 150 miles today among the mountain mining towns in the Wyoming valley. He mingled with people of all stations in life, from the breaker boys to society women who are spending the summer at Glen Summit Springs, an aristocratic resort above Wilkesbarre.

Late tonight he started back to Oyster Bay.

The colonel had the same smile for them all, but he made no secret of the fact that his chief delight was in meeting the wage-earners who spend their working hours far under the ground. The miners treated him as though he had worked side by side with them for years.

"Hello, Teddy, You're Looking Fine."

An incident which was typical of the day's happenings occurred at Wyoming, a mining hamlet a few miles above Wilkesbarre. An old Irish woman stepped up to him, and thrusting out her hand, exclaimed:

"Hello, Teddy. You're looking fine."

The former president grinned with delight and said he was glad to see her.

"You are looking fine, too," he said.

"Yes, indeed," said she. "I'm strong as you are, and you're a fine lump." The colonel drove away, still smiling.

In all the colonel passed through fifteen towns today.

John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America; the Rev. Father J. J. Curran, of Wilkesbarre, and the Rev. Father J. J. O'Donnell, of Stowell, Pa., rode in the automobile with him.

At Brookside, the first stop, a group of men, most of them barefooted, stood idly in front of a store, one of whom recognized Colonel Roosevelt and hailed him as "Teddy."

He Meets the Mother of Five.

At Pittston, a town of 10,000, Mrs. Mary Lewis, an elderly woman, pushed through the crowd until she managed to reach the colonel's side.

"I'm the mother of five children," she said.

"Fine, fine," Colonel Roosevelt exclaimed. He grasped her hand, hardened by years of heavy work, peered into her faded blue eyes and said:

"Do you know my opinion is that the average American is always a pretty good citizen, but many times his wife is a better one."

At the home of Mrs. Frank Kowalczeck he found six women already there and a good many others rushed in.

She Kissed Hands of John Mitchell.

As the colonel was about to leave, after talking with the women of their home life, he turned to one, and pointing to John Mitchell, he said:

"Do you know who he is? He is John Mitchell."

The woman started as she heard the name of the man who is idolized by so many miners, then she forgot Colonel Roosevelt entirely. With a cry she fell upon her knees before the miner, clutched his hands and kissed them again and again. Mr. Mitchell raised her to to her feet, shook her hand and backed out of the house.

In the outskirts of Wyoming an extremely amusing incident occurred at a tavern. A man who apparently had been spending a large part of the day in the barroom was sleeping on the porch.

Thought Roosevelt Would Buy Drinks.

As the Roosevelt party rode by the bartender rushed out, gazed at the travelers and then shook the sleeper.

"Hey, wake up," he shouted. "Roosevelt's going by."

The reveller rubbed his eyes sleepily and then sprang to his feet.

"Roosevelt going to buy," he called out gladly, and he ran into the barroom. His enthusiasm was disappointed when the colonel did not stop.

Returning to Wilkesbarre, Colonel Roosevelt had luncheon with the Rev. Father Curran and forty other priests and resumed his investigation at 3 o'clock.

At Avondale Colonel Roosevelt spent the happiest moments of the day. The population consists chiefly of children, and they gathered about him in clusters.

He Goes to See Mother of 12.

Little Annie McLaughlin rushed up breathlessly.

"My mama wants you to come right in and see her," she cried. "She has got twelve children."

The distinguished foe of race suicide hastened to the little house. Mrs. McLaughlin was ready for him, and in proof of her assertion she produced seven children of various ages. The other five were not at home and she begged the colonel's pardon.

One of Mrs. McLaughlin's children insisted that the colonel play the piano. "I can't," he protested. As the party had climbed into the automobile a breaker boy came up at full speed.

He Missed Mother of 18.

"Stop, stop," he yelled breathlessly. "There is a woman down the street who has got eighteen children, and she wants to see you." But it was getting late and Colonel Roosevelt had to proceed without seeing her.

Colonel Roosevelt is due in New York early in the morning and expects then to go to Oyster Bay.

HE FELL TO DEATH WITH AEROPLANE

From Great Height Nicholas Kinet Tumbled.

Kinet Was Caught in Squall While 650 Feet in the Air. Wife and Brother Saw the Tragedy---Three Weeks Ago Kinet's Cousin Was Killed.

Brussels, August 3.—Falling from a great height, Nicholas Kinet, the Belgian aviator, was instantly killed this afternoon. Only three weeks ago his cousin, Daniel, one of the best known foreign aeronauts, was killed in a similar manner at Ghent.

Nicholas Kinet was flying at a height of about 650 feet when he was caught in a squall. A rear wire of his biplane snapped and becoming entangled in the motor, stopped the engine with a suddenness that turned the aeroplane on its side. The machine crashed to the ground and Kinet was crushed under it.

His wife and a brother was among the witnsesses of the accident and rushed upon the field. The wife fell unconscious beside the body, while the brother, in a fit of grief, threw himself head foremost on the wrecked machine.

M. Olieslagers, who holds records for duration flights, had a narrow escape from death today. Through some defect in the motor, his monoplane dropped to the ground from a height of 65 feet and was wrecked. When the aviator was helped from the wreckage it was found that he was practically uninjured.

Nicholas Kinet was one of the stars of the Brussels meeting, and had distinguished himself at Budapest, and rather previous to this he had made a notable flight, last May, of nearly three hours with a passenger.

AMERICAN GUNS ROAR FOR PRESIDENT MONTT

The Chilean Executive Comes to Visit President Taft.

New York, August 3.—The thunder of guns from Fort Wadsworth proclaimed the arrival in port this afternoon of President Montt, of the republic of Chile, on board the royal mail liner Tagus, from Colon.

This honor was accorded the distinguished head of a sister American republic by the United States government.

A detachment of United States army regulars was stationed at the landing place to escort the president and his suite to their hotel.

President Montt will be in this city two days and will then go to Boston, and from thence to Beverly to pay President Taft a visit.

MANAGER SMITH RETURNS TODAY

Absent From City Two Weeks on Business.

Ed Maddox Enthusiastic Over Organization of Brown Club in Floyd County --- All Hoke Smith Money Offered at the Kimball Covered.

J. R. Smith, manager of the Brown campaign for reelection, reaches the city at noon today, from Washington and other eastern cities. Mr. Smith has been absent for about two weeks on business.

Ed Maddox, president of the Joe Brown Clubs, returned to the city Wednesday and resumed the direction of affairs at the campaign headquarters in the Kimball house.

Mr. Maddox was enthusiastic over the Brown Club organized in Floyd county on Tuesday night. Among those attending were the members of the Lindale Rifles, the company which went to the scene of the threatened riot at the Durham mines in Walker county on orders from Governor Brown. They were accompanied by the military band of the company, and raised much enthusiasm.

The mail received at Brown headquarters continues to be exceedingly heavy. A large amount of campaign literature and buttons are being sent out on request of the Brown Clubs over the state.

SMITH TO SPEAK HERE TOMORROW

Political Address at the Auditorium.

Former Governor Has Made Tentative Engagements for Speeches in Macon, Augusta and Tifton--Tremendous Mail at Smith Headquarters.

Former Governor Smith did not pay his usual visit to campaign haedquarters at 11 o'clock yesterday, as he spent the day in Monroe, where he delivered his address on "The South in the Sixties," before a large audience of Walton county people.

On next Friday night he will make his first political speech of the campaign at the Auditorium-Armory in Atlanta. On Saturday he goes to Rome, where he will speak in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. Other tentative engagements have been made for speeches in Macon, Augusta and Tifton.

The following statement was given out at headquarters:

"A tremendous mail was received at headquarters Wednesday morning with reports from practically every county in the state. While, of course, these reports cannot be published, they indicate the most careful and certain analysis of the registered voters and there are going to be some big surprises on the day of the primary from counties now apparently conceded to Governor Brown.

"In spite of Governor Hoke Smith's absence the headquarters were crowded as usual with an enthusiastic band of workers who came in and out, giving their reports of the campaign."

It was said that another letter had been received from a Hoke Smith man who told of getting a letter from Governor Brown, thanking him for his support. W. A. Woolbright said he was for Smith and had not joined the Fulton county Brown Club.

W. M. Tumlin, of Haralson, said his county will be for Smith this year and that Polk county, in which Brown's majority two years ago was 708, is doubtful.

G. W. Dewberry reported that Schley and Macon counties would give Smith an increased majority. John Johnson, senator from the Nineteenth, says everything is for Smith in Greene. B. J. Smith predicts that Walton will go for Smith this year. W. S. Pritchett says he would not be surprised if Smith's majority in Walton did not reach 1,000 this time.

MIGHTY WALLOPS HANDED TO TAFT AND CANNONISM

Iowa Republican Convention Declares Party Has Not Kept Faith of the People.

TARIFF LAW DENOUNCED; STAND-PATTERS SCORED

Only Most Lukewarm Indorsement Given Taft---Jeers and Hisses Greeted Efforts of Stand-Patters to Pass Resolution Praising Taft---Roosevelt's Name Set Them Wild.

Des Moines, Iowa, August 3.—Republican Iowa wrote herself vigorously progressive today at a convention, which was in an uproar most of the time.

Senators Cummins and Dolliver and the insurgent delegation at Washington were enthusiastically indorsed.

The new tariff law was branded as a failure in the light of the party pledge of 1908.

President Taft received only a lukewarm indorsement.

Steam Roller Called Off.

An attempt to use the steam roller and make the state central committee overwhelmingly progressive was called off, presumably at the hint of Senator Cummins.

Senator Cummins was temporarily chairman; Senator Dolliver, permanent chairman.

The progressive majority ranged close to 300 on every question. The resolutions committee was progressive 6 to 5.

The foregoing is a synopsis of the day's events.

To it may be added cheers and jeers, applause and hisses, music and howls of discord.

The appearance and disappearance of the "steam roller" was one of the diverting incidents of the day. It came about through the insistence of the stand-pat members of the platform committee in demanding an unqualified indorsement of the Taft administration, the legislative acts of the "regulars" and hostility to Cummins and Dolliver.

Taft and Roosevelt Face to Face.

What may have been an attempt to stampede the delegates in favor of the stalwart resolutions was made when former Congressman Elsworth Rominger hoisted a portrait of President Taft amid stand-pat cheers. But the other side answered with silence or with jeers. Later another delegate among the progressives exposed a picture of Colonel Roosevelt, occasioning a demonstration.

The Taft portrait was again hoisted, and the two likenesses held so as to confront each other. The demonstration interrupted a roll call for several minutes.

The stand-pat members went down

PLAZA PLAN UP TO LEGISLATURE

Favorable Report Made by the Committee.

The plaza plan is now up to the Georgia legislature for approval.

Without a single dissenting vote the house committee on the Western and Atlantic railroad yesterday afternoon agreed to recommend to the house that the bill authorizing the state to cooperate with the city in the construction of the plaza and the joint terminal station and office building, be passed. Hooper Alexander, as chairman of the committee, will submit the report to the house today.

The committee decided to recommend that the original plaza bill be passed by substitute, the substitute having been prepared at a conference between Attorney Alex Smith, representing the plaza corporation and the city of Atlanta, and a subcommittee composed of Mr. McElreath, of Fulton; Mr. Ault, of Polk; Mr. Calbeck, of Gordon, and Mr. Alexander.

Differs in Detail Only.

The substitute differed from the original bill in only a few particulars and as drafted by the subcommittee met every objection originally advanced to the bill.

In fact, so completely does the substitute overcome those objections that Mr. Alexander, chairman of the committee, stated that the plaza promoters have conceded much more to the state than he expected or demanded as a member of the committee and of the legislature.

1. The rights of other railroads, notably the Georgia, in the present union station shall be condemned and extinguished before the work on the new building is started. It was pointed out that the Georgia road, by a contract, has an interest in the station building, and that this right must be satisfied and disposed of before the new building is erected.

2. The plaza building shall cost not less than $2,500,000, and shall be twenty stories high above the plaza. The plans for the building must be approved by the governor, and it must be completed by January 1, 1916. Within thirty years from the date of completion the building is to be turned over to the state.

3. The governor, the attorney general and the chairman of the railroad commission, as ex-officio members of the board of directors of the plaza corporation, are given the power to veto any proposition in connection with the plaza when such proposition does not meet with their approval.

Advantages Given State.

Mr. McElreath, as spokesman for the promoters of the plaza plan, stated that it was desired to give the state every advantage possible in connection with the proposd plan of erecting the civic center. He pointed out that by inserting the provision that the property must be turned over to the state within thirty years from completion will mean that if the promoters have not gotten their money out of it by that time the state is not estopped from taking it over and that the former will be the losers and are perfectly willing to take the chances on it.

The motion that the bill be reported favorably was made by Mr. Brinson, of Decatur, who declared it to be one of the finest propositions he had ever seen. The motion was adopted by a unanimous vote.

$25,000 OFFERED BLIND SENATOR

To Foster Scheme to Rob the Indians.

Muskogee, Okla., August 3.—Investigation of charges made in the United States senate by Senator T. P. Gore that he and a member of the house of representatives each had been offered a bribe of $25,000 to foster a scheme whereby the Indians of Oklahoma were to be deprived of $3,000,000 profits due them through the sale of asphalt lands in this state is to be begun here tomorrow.

On the eve of the investigation Senator Gore said:

"I will tell the full details of the scheme hatched at Washington to mulct these Indians out of $3,000,000 through the sale of their lands. I will give names, dates and other circumstances relative to the bribe of $25,000 offered to me and to a member of the house of representatives to remove our opposition to the scheme which would throw that vast sum of money into the hands of private attorneys."

The committee was appointed by the house of representatives to investigate what are known as the McMurray contracts with the Chickasaw and Choctaw tribes of Indians. It is headed by Chairman Charles H. Burke, of South Dakota. Senator Gore probably will be the first witness.

Strike Still Continues.

New York, August 3.—Negotiations with their employees looking to a settlement of the strike of cloakmakers in this city were declared off this evening after a meeting of the Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Association. The failure of the strikers' committee to reply to the terms submitted to it yesterday by the employers was given as the cause of this action.

Pumping Station Burned.

Denison, Texas, August 3.—Fire last night destroyed the Texas and Pacific Railroad pumping station at Sherman. During the fire a gasoline tank exploded, throwing the burning fluid into a crowd of spectators, seriously burning twenty people. All will recover. The loss is small.

CROSS OF HONOR FAILS TO SAVE VETERAN FROM PENITENTIARY

Savannah, Ga., August 3.—S. S. Bessinger, a confederate veteran, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter in Chatham superior court today at the end of his trial for stabbing James Payne to death on the evening of May 30 last.

Bessinger wore a confederate cross of honor in court during his trial. No objection was made to this and Judge Charlton, in sentencing Bessinger to two years in the penitentiary, said, in regard to it:

"I do not like to see a veteran wearing a cross of honor in court when he is on trial for a crime. You could have worn it for only one purpose, to work upon the prejudice of the jury. Practices of this nature would tend to make of the confederate badge a common thing."

Bessinger and Payne formerly were partners in a grocery business. They quarreled over money and Bessenger killed Payne in the presence of the latter's wife.

BALLINGER ASKED TO LEAVE CABINET

Believed That Request Was Made by Crane.

Chicago, August 3.—Senator Murray W. Crane, who is generally supposed to have come west for intimating to Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the secretary's resignation from the cabinet would be to the interest of the republican party, returned east today. Just before leaving, he refused either to deny or confirm the report that he had asked Secretary Ballinger to resign.

It developed late today that both the secretary and the senator were in the same hotel today and it is generally believed that a conference was held between them yesterday afternoon.

Secretary Ballinger arrived in Chicago at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and Senator Crane put in an appearance at the same hotel two hours later. The secretary registered but the senator did not. Both gentlemen were absent from the hotel yesterday afternoon, and both were gone at the same time.

Secretary Ballinger left for Seattle last night, after declaring that he would not resign. Senator Crane today was asked point blank if he had requested Secretary Ballinger's resignation. He said:

"I came west on a mission. I have been to Minneapolis and now am returning home. I saw Mr. Ballinger there, but it was not by appointment. We simply talked on general matters."

"Were you sent west to secure Secretary Ballinger's resignation?"

"What I was sent for, if I was sent at all," replied the senator, with a smile, "is no public business. I finished my trip and am going home and do not care to discuss Mr. Ballinger, politics or my mission here."

New Southern Railway.

Montgomery, Ala., August 3.—With the avowed purpose to build a railroad from Scranton, Miss., to Birmingham, Ala., the Birmingham, Demopolis and Scranton Railroad Company was incorporated by the secretary of state today. Its capital is nominal, the promoters being for the most part citizens of Demopolis, Ala.

2 STAND-PATTERS ESCAPE WRECK

In Insurgent Cyclone That Hit Kansas.

"UNCLE JOE" IS SILENT ON KANSAS PRIMARIES

Mackinac Island, Mich., August 3.—Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, received the news today of the Kansas "insurgent" victory at Cannon Ball, a local summer resort. When asked for any comments on the situation, he replied:

"I have nothing to say in regard to the Kansas primaries until the complete returns are before me. However, I should like to remark that primaries were also held in Missouri and Oklahoma."

Topeka, Kan., August 3.—While the returns from the republican state primary are not yet complete, enough are in so that it is no longer any doubt as to who the winners are.

Six insurgents and two stand-patters were nominated as candidates for congress. Two of the insurgents, E. H. Madison, and Victor Murdock, present incumbents, from the Seventh and Eighth districts respectively, had no opposition. It was thought last night that D. B. Anthony, Jr., incumbent and stand-patter from the First district, had been defeated by T. A. McNeal, the insurgent candidate, but returns today proved that Anthony has been renominated by 107 votes.

Governor W. R. Stubbs, the progressive candidate for renomination, defeated Thomas Wagstaf, a conservative, by a majority of 27,372.

Murdock on the Victory.

Wichita, Kan., August 3.—Victor Murdock, the insurgent leader in congress, in his home in this city today said regarding the insurgent victories in Kansas yesterday:

"The significance of the overwhelming insurgent victory is two-fold.

"First, it is a complete repudiation of both Cannon and the system by which he has robbed the people of free government in the house. Scott, Miller and Reeder were chairman of important house committees, while Calderhead was on the ways and means committee. All were beaten because they subscribed to the Cannon system.

"Second, the Kansas insurgent victory is an effort by the republicans of Kansas to say with emphasis to the nation that the republican party of Kansas, by indorsing Governor Stubbs and the Kansas insurgents in congress, stands for immediate and effective legislation framed to drive special and selfish interests out of control in American politics."

HAWLEY CAUGHT IN STOCK SLUMP

Another Big Speculative Pool Goes to Smash.

New York, August 3.—It became known today that another big speculative pool has been eased of heavier holdings than it could carry.

Friends of Edwin Hawley will be quoted in The New York World tomorrow as admitting that a syndicate of bankers, said to be headed by J. P. Morgan & Co., have taken over 50,000 shares of Chesapeake and Ohio stock, bought by them since the Pennsylvania railroad and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. parted with their interest. Mr. Hawley's control, however, is said to remain intact.

Chesapeake and Ohio has recently sold as high as 92, and the pool is said to have bought at an average of 80. Latterly a decline set in. Under repeated drives the stock touched 65 yesterday. Support developed and the price rallied to 70. It now appears that Morgan came to the rescue.

Stand-Patter Wins in Missouri.

St. Louis, August 3.—Reports received tonight from various parts of the fourteenth district indicate the probable renomination of Congressman Charles A. Crow, stand-patter and Cannon adherent. David W. Hill, insurgent republican, who opposed Congressman Crow, admitted tonight that the returns seemed to show his defeat.

Wider Pleads Guilty.

New York, August 3.—Erwin J. Wider, the young cashier of the Russo-Chinese Bank in this city, whose stealings from the bank's security box resulted in a loss upwards of $500,000 to the institution, pleaded guilty today to the indictment found against him in connection with the embezzlement. Wider was remanded for sentence on August 10.

ADVERTISING TALKS.

WRITTEN BY
WILLIAM C. FREEMAN.

On the broad porch of the Mount Washington Hotel, at Bretton Woods, a few evenings since, MR. DARWIN P. KINGSLEY, the President of the NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, and I sat doing some reminiscing.

When the late JOHN A. McCALL was President of the New York Life, a man for whom I always had the highest personal regard, those of us in the advertising department of the Hearst New York newspapers, where I was then employed, thought that the time was about ripe for some big insurance company to take up a SYSTEMATIC ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN in the newspapers.

WE PLANNED A SERIES OF TEN FULL PAGE ADVERTISEMENTS at a conference, which were written by CHARLES M. PECK. A careful study of life insurance was made—agents were seen and their influence was sought to favor an advertising campaign, and MANY OF THEM STRONGLY URGED IT.

The pages were prepared without the knowledge of any of the officers of the

MAN IS HELD UP IN CENTER OF CITY

Oscar Clay Robbed of $15 at Corner Broad and Marietta.

In the heart of the city, at the corner of Broad and Marietta streets, Oscar Clay, a bricklayer about 30 years of age, residing at 6 Bradley street, was robbed of $15 at 12:30 o'clock this morning, the robber making his escape before officers could be summoned.

Clay says that he was standing on the corner when a tall, black-moustached man approached him and engaged in conversation with him. The stranger inquired as to Clay's profession and said that he, also, was a bricklayer. Drinks were proposed and Clay says that he acquiesced, saying that he had $15. They approached a near beer saloon, which they found closed, and as they turned away the stranger is alleged to have grabbed Clay, and after striking him several times, to have taken the money.

New York Life. Fine proofs were pulled and they were submitted to Mr. McCall, who read them over carefully, one by one, and said they were the FINEST ADVERTISEMENTS he had ever seen.

Mr. McCall was always the most courteous of men and never denied himself to a caller who had something to say. It took a lot of time to go over those advertisements, but he did it.

It did not seem to him a propitious time to start an advertising campaign, and his fellow-officers agreed with him—so we did not get an order to insert the pages.

But Mr. McCall wrote us a letter in which he said that we had gone to a lot of trouble in the preparation of copy, much of which could be used by the New York Life in booklets, circulars, etc., and he thought we should be paid for our services, and he thereupon offered us a check for ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The check was declined with thanks. That was about the REAL BEGINNING of newspapers mapping out advertising campaigns for business men and taking the trouble to prepare copy—a system now very generally in vogue in all wide-awake newspaper offices.

It has CREATED hundreds of advertisers and helped them along to success.

Mr. Kingsley did not say much when I recalled the above incidents to him except to confirm their accuracy, but I thought I detected a flash of the eye and an expression around the mouth which read to me—

"By George, I believe I should do some advertising for the New York Life—REGULAR, SYSTEMATIC ADVERTISING, educating the people as to the importance of life insurance—fortifying our agents in all parts of the country with sound arguments."

I wonder if I read aright!

house, was asked about the report that a $200 bet that Hoke Smith would carry the county had never been taken. He said the money had been covered. He said that any number of offers to bet money on Brown had been made to him, but he preferred not to post any more bets, as the work took up so much of his time.

Bunn on the Durham Affair.

Ex-Senator W. C. Bunn, of Cedartown, submits the following communication incident to the Durham coal mine affair, writing of which he says:

"Claims have been advanced by some of the supporters of Hon. Hoke Smith in the present race for governor, and the former governor has been formally quoted as saying in the same connection that a governor has no power to call out the state troops, except upon the request of a sheriff, mayor or a judge of the superior court. This must be very comforting, reassuring and satisfying to the people of Georgia.

"Now let us suppose a case to test the working of this limitation on the chief executive of the state, the commander-in-chief of the military forces of the state, and the conservator of the peace of the state. Suppose a race riot occurred in some county in Georgia, say, in some part of south Georgia, and the rioters promptly killed the sheriff and the mayor, or took charge of them, and the superior court judge was away at some distant point holding court, or taking his vacation. Having assured themselves, therefore, of no interference the rioters proceed to kill and murder men and outrage women, and destroy property, or do any one of these things. A private citizen calls up the governor and tells him of the murder, outrage, pillage, etc., going on. The governor has reliable information of the facts. None of these three officers can command or entrust him to quell the riot. Now, see the poor, helpless governor wringing his hands, pulling his hair and striding up and down the executive office exclaiming in the anguish of his soul, a sheriff! a mayor! or a judge of a superior court! My kingdom for a sheriff! or a mayor! or a judge of the superior court! to command, or order or ask or authorize, or permit me, the chief executive, the commander-in-chief of the military forces of the state, the conservator of peace, to send troops to protect my people from cruel murder, now being wrought, to save the woman and children from outrage and death; to save the property of my citizens. I am helpless; I am manacled by the terms of the law. Woe is me! My people must die; the women must be outraged and property destroyed, until I get my order from a sheriff, a mayor, or a judge. Oh! adjutant general, I am handcuffed by the law; I can do nothing. Now, see the adjutant general comforting the governor on this wise: 'Governor, I see your soul is troubled. You say you are helpless; I guess you must be right about it, as you know all things. But, cheer up governor, when the sheriff and mayor escape from the rioters, or a new sheriff or mayor is elected, or the judge can get back home and investigate, you can then get orders, or requests or permission or suggestions to proceed; and then you can proceed to send the troops to protect the lives and safety of your people and their property that may remain, if the rioting is still going on. Have courage!'

"Again, suppose the governor was on the scene himself, and could not find his sheriff, mayor or judge, and would have to witness the rioting with no power to stop it. Or, again, suppose the only one or ones of these necessary officers, bosses of the governor, was or were too cowardly, or politic, or too subject to the threats or influences of the mob to direct his servant, the governor, to order out troops, think how pitiable would be the plight of the great governor.

"This states the case strongly. Such a case might or might not occur. It certainly might occur, if it becomes well known and understood that the governor will not and cannot act in this regard, on his own initiative, from reliable information coming from any source. Rioters would soon learn that the first thing to do would be to kill or capture these three bosses of the governor.

"The law does not restrict the governor. He can act and should act on reliable information. It is well to consult the sheriff, the mayor or judge, but it is not essential for the governor to wait for orders from one of these officers. Governor Brown did right to send troops to the Durham mines, just as Governor Smith did right in sending troops to Aragon—without request from the sheriff of Polk county and without his advice to do so. He had reliable information from Aragon through private parties.

"I reiterate the statement that the sheriff of Polk county did not request Governor Smith to send the troops to Aragon.

"If Sheriff Dempsey concludes to make a statement, this will settle it. I will not ask him to do so. I will say this, however, that Mr. Dempsey is a gentleman, an honorable, truthful man, and an accurate man, and he will not misstate a fact, to help or to injure any candidate or person. If he adheres to the idea of not making a statement, and if this matter is to be again referred to as a canard, I may feel it proper to show the facts in another way. This I can and will do if it is made necessary. The attack on Governor Brown in this matter is 'a tempest in a teapot' anyway, raging only in the imaginations of some of his opponents."

most vicious sort have been flung into the camps of the contestants. Governor Patterson has stumped the state for the regular democratic nominees, while Attorney General Charles T. Cates, Railroad Commissioner Enloe, General Harvey Hannah and other well-known political leaders have made a whirlwind campaign for the independent ticket. This latter ticket has been indorsed by the republican organization.

Both sides are claiming certain victory and no result can conservatively vouchsafed until the ballots are counted.

The Pardon of Cooper.

The principal feature of the campaign in this judicial election has been the interjection of Governor Patterson's official record. The pardoning of Colonel Duncan B. Cooper for the killing of Senator Carmack has been used as an argument against the regular nominees. The governor and his friends have defended his official acts.

OKLAHOMA G. O. P. STANDS PAT; GRANDFATHER CLAUSE ADOPTED

Guthrie, Okla., August 3.—With returns coming slowly from various counties of the state, but still incomplete, the results of Tuesday's primary election remain practically unchanged, with the exception of the governorship on the republican ticket. Party leaders here, including Chairman Jim Harris, tonight concede the race exceedingly close between J. M. McNeal and former Governor Tom Ferguson.

On the democratic side, W. H. Murray and Lee Cruce are still claiming the gubernatorial victory from 10,000 to 20,000 plurality. One the face of the returns, however, Cruce has won.

Present figures indicate the adoption of the grandfather disfranchising clause by anywhere from 15,000 to 25,000 majority. That the proposed amendment received a heavy vote in some of the strong republican localities was one of the peculiar features of the election.

Congressmen B. C. McGuire, D. T. Morgan and Charles E. Creager, who are stand-patters, were renominated by the republicans.

The Only Real Painting is "White-Leading"

CONSIDER the subject of painting in its broader sense—in its permanent relation to your property.

¶ Estimates should not be based on "painting" merely, in which the paint used may be good or bad, but on "white-leading," which can only mean "painting with pure white lead and linseed oil."

Red Seal or Atlantic

Pure White Lead ("Dutch Boy Painter" trade-mark) manifests its superiority not only in its non-cracking, non-chipping finish, but in holding colors fadeless and weather-proof.

¶ Nor do you have to double your next appropriation for painting by paying for burning off the old paint, as is frequently the case with "painting," for "white-leading" gives an ideal foundation for subsequent painting.

¶ Specify "Dutch Boy Painter" Pure White Lead, the surest and most economical paint for you, the fairest to your painter.

GARBED IN MALE ATTIRE SHE WENT ON HONEYMOON

Joliet, Ill., August 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Jarhoe, of Kansas City, are occupying cells at the Joliet police station because the woman masqueraded with her husband in male attire. They have been "hoboing" since their marriage a month ago. Mrs. Jarhoe was formerly Jeannette Rich.

The couple show traces of refinement. They declared their whole purpose in tramping and boarding "blind sleepers" was to experience a novel honeymoon.

According to their story, they hastened to the outskirts of Kansas City as soon as the preacher tied the knot, and the bride donned a man's suit. They went to Denver on a freight train. Both procured places as "bell hops" in the same hotel, and when the novelty of that experience wore off they beat their way to Chicago.

They visited places of amusement and spent all their money. Monday afternoon they boarded a freight for Joliet. They were planning for another freight ride when a railroad detective discovered the effeminate maneuvers of one of the "hoboes."

Mrs. Jarhoe cried just a little when she and "hubby" were marched to the police station. As the iron doors clanked behind them in different cells, she broke down.

The couple will probably be released.

ALICE ROOSEVELT-LONGWORTH ASKED TO QUIT HER CIGARETTES

Fairbury, Neb., August 3.—At a union meeting of the four Christian Young People's Societies of this town it was unanimously voted yesterday to write an open letter to Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, daughter of former President Roosevelt, asking her to forego cigarettes, because of the evil influence it is bound to have on girls and boys in the country, according to their notions. The four societies taking this action are the Epworth League, the Baptist Young People's Union and the Christian Endeavor Societies of the Christian and Presbyterian churches.

HE SHOOK ROOSEVELT'S HAND AND THEN FELL UNCONSCIOUS

Belvidere, N. J., August 3.—The honor of shaking hands with Theodore Roosevelt almost cost T. J. Shea his life. Roosevelt, traveling southward to the coal districts by automobile on Monday night, stopped Shea to ask for guidance on the roads through the outskirts of Belvidere. After Shea had given the desired information, Roosevelt leaned over and shook his hand. Shea was overwhelmed at the honor and was so eager to tell his friends that he ran 2 miles into the city and dropped unconscious just as he was about to gasp out the news. It took two doctors four hours to bring him around and he will not be out of danger for several days. He has long suffered from heart disease and he had been warned against hard exercise.

Lebanon, Tenn., August 3.—Nappar Byrun, aged about 50 and the father of twelve children, shot and killed his wife last night about 10 o'clock at his home near Silver Springs, using a pistol for the purpose and firing through an open window. Mr. Byrun was a brother to Thomas Byrun, who killed J. W. Puckett at the same place a few weeks ago, the cause of which is a mystery. The two Byruns married sisters and it is thought that the two murders have some connection.

After shooting his wife Byrun made his escape, but was caught this morning.

ITCHING, BLEEDING ECZEMA WAS CURED

By Cuticura After 5 Years of Suffering Beyond Description—Thought Death was Near—Calls Cure Wonderful.

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with itching and bleeding eczema, until I was cured by the Cuticura Remedies, and I am so grateful I want the world to know, for what helped me will help others. My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again with the most terrible pain and itching. I have been sick several times, but never in my life did I experience such awful suffering as with this eczema. I had made up my mind that death was near at hand, and I longed for that time when I would be at rest. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, and my mother brought me the Cuticura Remedies, insisting that I try them. I began to feel better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment.

"I continued with the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and consider myself well. This was nine years ago and I have had no return of the trouble since. Any person having any doubt about this wonderful cure by the Cuticura Remedies can write to my address, Mrs. Altie Etson, 93 Inn Road, Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 16, 1909."

'Cuticura affords the most economical treatment for affections of the skin and scalp, from infancy to age. A cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

MIGHTY WALLOPS HANDED TO TAFT

in defeat with their colors riveted to the mast. They fought in every committee, where a fight was possible, insisted on roll calls and battled every inch for their principles.

What Stand-Patters Wanted.

Their resolution incorporated in the minority report on the platform and voted down by the convention, refers to:

"The record of achievement of President Taft's administration and the sixty-first congress is unequaled in our history and indorses the Taft policies in fulfillment of the work inaugurated by his predecessor, and congratulates the party and country upon its achievements in securing railroad legislation and declares that Taft's administration is entitled to the unequivocal support of every republican."

It also indorses 'the action of President Taft in approving the tariff bill' and commends "his prudent, business-like and economical administration of all the affairs of the nation."

In conclusion, it indorses the Iowa delegates in congress for all efforts in support of the administration and of the president, and for such aid and assistance as they have given him in carrying forward his administration and legislative policies.

Chorus of Jeers and Hisses.

Former Congressman Hepburn read the minority report. As the purport of the concluding paragraph became apparent his voice was drowned in a chorus of jeers and hisses. It was only after much pounding of the gavel by Senator Dolliver that Mr. Hepburn was able to conclude. He moved the substitution of these planks for those of the same application in the majority report, and the motion was lost, 568 to 815.

Judge Horace E. Deemer and W. D. Evans were nominated for reelection to the supreme court bench by acclamation. A. M. Deyoe was the choice on second ballot for the state superintendent of public instruction.

The Insurgent Platform.

The platform adopted renews its allegiance to the doctrine of protection; it favors a non-partisan tariff commission and expresses the belief that when the tariff is again revised its "schedules should be considered separately, so that each subject can be dealt with upon its own merits, and thus secure fair and impartial action upon the patr of congress."

The platform commends "to the nation the type of statesmanship exhibited by Senators Dolliver and Cummins, and heartily indorses their work upon the tariff bill, the railroad bill, and the postal savings bank bill."

In referring to combinations, the platform insists that "there shall be such competition as will protect the people against the exactions of unrestrained avarice and greed."

It also congratulates the country upon the success obtained in the regulation of our common carriers, but they feel that there is yet much to be done to secure reasonable rates and charges to which it is entitled.

The platform concludes with an indorsement of the postal savings bank bill. The policy of conservation of natural resources, income tax and good roads are upheld. United States senators should be elected by the direct vote of the people.

It is urged that the present method of representation in national conventions based upon members of congress is unfair. Representation on the basis of party strength is suggested.

Cummins Angered Stand-Patters.

Senator Cummins threw the republican state convention into disorder in his address when he named the party of "Lincoln, of Grant, of Roosevelt," etc., ignoring President Taft.

Former Congressman Lacey, a stand-patter, walked into the center aisle crying "Taft! Taft! Taft!" in which he was joined by his fellow stalwarts.

Roosevelt's name was cheered standing. Cummins, who spoke as temporary chairman, ignored Lacey's cry, but it was some time before he could resume. A number of so-called regulars did not stay to hear the address out.

Knocks for Reactionaries.

Senator Cummins was repeatedly cheered by the progressives, the stalwarts generally remaining silent unless to interrupt him. He referred to "helpless and retreating reactionaries," and declared that the republican party must speedily become all progressive or all stand-patters.

He declared it would be easier to make the republican party all progressive than secure proper legislation from a democratic administration. He averred that Payne, Aldrich, Dalzell and other so-called regulars are no more in favor of the principle of protection than are the progressives.

Taft's Name Not Mentioned.

Senator Cummins did not mention either President Taft or Governor Carroll by name in his speech. In referring to the republican party as the party of Lincoln, of Grant, of Roosevelt," etc., it was noticed he did not say anything about the party of "Taft."

The mention of Roosevelt's name brought the audience to its feet. Then from the stand-patters came cries of "Taft! Taft! Taft!" They wanted the party referred to as the party of Taft alone. The senator smiled during the outburst, but ignored the request.

"— and of Roosevelt," he attempted to resume, whereupon the cries of "Taft! Taft!" were resumed by the stalwarts. As the speaker still denied the demand, there were hisses. These soon ceased, and the progressive leader continued his address as it lay in manuscript before him.

Cummins Scores Tariff.

Senator Cummins' address was a strong arraignment of the stand-patters, and incidentally of the Taft administration. In speaking of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill he said in part:

"It is not a republican measure, although passed by republican votes, for the men who are chiefly responsible for it thought more of swelling the overgrown fortunes of their intimate friends than they thought of the party principles, the party pledge, or the welfare of a long suffering people.

"The logical, sensible thing to do is to correct our mistake—none but republicans can correct it—and under the impulse of the sentiment, growing now by leaps and bounds everywhere, they will correct it and leave the republican name and republican pledge without a stain in all its wonderful history."

The body was shipped today to Orangeburg.

To Probe Lorimer Scandal.

Chicago, August 3.—United States Senator R. J. Gamble, of Yankton, S. D., announced here late today that the committee of senators appointed to investigate charges against Senator William Lorimer, involving a question of his right to a seat in the senate, will meet in Chicago September 10. ## TRIBBLE ATTACKED WITH BUGGY WHIP

Athens, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—The first personal clash of the present congressional campaign occurred yesterday morning when J. A. Pitner, candidate for county treasurer in the recent county primary, and Congressional Candidate S. J. Tribble exchanged some words, a few threats and Mr. Pitner attempted to thrash Mr. Tribble with the latter's buggy whip. Mr. Tribble was out of the city last night, and could not be seen for his account of the difference. Mr. Pitner tells the following, not verbatim, but in substance:

"Mr. Tribble drove down to my place of business and opened the conversation by referring to reports as to how he had voted in the county primary in the treasurer's race. He claimed that he had called me up before the election and promised to vote for me. I told him he did not. He called me an infamous liar, and with a return of the compliment I seized his whip from his buggy and struck at him, as he alighted on the street. He dodged and backed off, and I failed to hit him both times, though I broke the whip in the scuffle—I have the broken whip now at the store. As he stepped back he threw his hand to his hip pocket and threatened to shoot me. Finding he did not have his gun he reached in his trousers' pocket and threatened to cut me. I then ran into the office for my gun, but friends held me, and when I again went into the street he had left the place. That was all there was to it."

WIRELESS MEN HELD FOR FRAUD

Seven Officers of United Company Indicted.

They Are Accused of Conspiracy to Defraud by Use of the Mails—President Wilson Held in $25,000 Bail—Smaller Bonds for Other Officers.

AFTER BEING INDICTED HE GETS LICENSE TO WED

New York, August 3.—Christopher Columbus Wilson, president of the United Wireless Company, who was indicted this afternoon on two counts of conspiracy to defraud, appeared at city hall tonight, long after hours, and took out a marriage license. He gave his age as 46 and the bride hers as 19. She says she is Stella Lewis, a stenographer.

The couple were married tonight. The girl was Wilson's stenographer.

New York, August 3.—Seven officers of the United Wireless Telegraph Company, most of whom had previously been arrested, were indicted by a federal grand jury today on two counts—one charging conspiracy to defraud by use of the United States mails; the other charging conspiracy in devising a scheme to induce investors to buy worthless stock.

The seven indicted are: President Christopher Columbus Wilson, Vice President Samuel S. Bogart, Secretary W. W. Tompkins, Fiscal Agent George H. Parker, General Manager C. C. Galbraith, Treasurer W. A. Dibell and Francis X. Butler, counsel and director of the company. All except Parker were arraigned before Judge Hough in the United States district court and pleaded not guilty. Parker is understood to be on the way here from Seattle to surrender himself.

President Wilso was held in $25,000 bail; Tompkins and Bogart in $10,000 each, and the others in $5,000 each. On the first charge all were paroled for one week, and on the second charge they were give ntwo days in which to find bail. They have permission to withdraw their plea of not guilty on or before September 20.

The company has outstanding $20,000,000 worth of common and preferred stock. The indictment gives a long list of statements about this stock sent out by the management which the indictment charges were wholly false and concludes:

It was part of the statement of said defendants to sell their personal, pretending the same to be treasury stock, and the reason the stock sold was made nontransferable for two years was to keep the stock off the market.

STATE CAMPAIGN IS QUIET IN BROOKS

But Local Politics Are Under Full Sway, Hot as the Weather.

Quitman, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) The local political campaign is getting under full sway; in fact, it may be said that it is tryng to keep away with this hot weather. There is from one to four candidates for every office except coroner and county surveyor, and if there are any who want these jobs they are mighty quiet about it.

Strange to say, there is very little interest manifested outwardly in the gubernatorial campaign. Two years ago both Smith and Brown factions had strong clubs, and each worked hard for their favorite candidates.

There has not been any effort to revive these clubs this year by either side of these clubs. It seems that so far as this contest is concerned this county has decided to have a peaceful campaign, whether the rest of the state does or not.

FERTILIZER PLANT DOUBLES CAPACITY

Rome, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—The plant of the North Georgia Fertilizer Company, in Rome, is to be doubled in capacity.

Announcement to that effect was officially made by President G. B. Holder this afternoon. This concern, which passed into the hands of Mr. Holder, W. M. McKenzie, L. G. Neel and others of Atlanta last year, has for sometime been mixing fertilizers on a large scale, but is not large enough to supply the demands made upon it. Work will begin next Monday on the enlargements.

The amount of capital invested will be doubled.

WHITE CO. TO EXHIBIT GEORGIA-RAISED STOCK

Macon, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Manager Wallace Miller, of the local office of the White Provision Company, a Georgia concern, of Atlanta, has asked for 60 stalls, where he will make an exhibit at the Georgia State Fair of the beef cattle and the industry as promulgated in Georgia. No cattle under 1,300 pounds will be exhibited. All will be Georgia-grown. A large exhibit of heifers and bulls will also be made to be sold at auction for those desiring the stock. This exhibit of Georgia beef will be made an attraction.

The trip was made in forty-seven running days. Jake Meninsinger and W. H. Lane composed the party, and took turns at the wheel. Among those who greeted the car on its arrival here was Vice President Ramon Corral.

THOUSANDS WILL ATTEND THE JOE BROWN BARBECUE

Athens, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Next Saturday, August 6, at Mt. Airy, there will be held a big rally and barbecue in the interest of "Little Joe" Brown, candidate for governor, and thousands of people are expected to be present.

The barbecue and speaking has been advertised for miles around and great crowds will come from Banks, Habersham, Rabun, Union, White, Lumpkin, Hall and many other counties.

In the forenoon, Judge Emory Speer will address the gathering by delivering his splendid lecture on the "Life and Times of Joseph E. Brown." Judge Speer is held in the highest esteem by the people of that section of the state and many of the older citizens who supported him so loyal for congress in the old Ninth district in days gone by will rally around him next Saturday to hear him deliver his well-known lecture.

A feature of the occasion will be the gathering of the "Habersham County Singing Convention." This organization numbers several hundred members, and their annual conventions are attended by large numbers.

In the afternoon, after the big barbecue has been served and everybody rested up, Judge E. H. Callaway, of Augusta, will address the gathering in the interest of "Little Joe" Brown's candidacy for governor. Judge Callaway is one of the ablest and most prominent members of the bar in this state, and the people of that section will hear one of the best speakers in Georgia. He is an enthusiastic Brown man and is thoroughly in sympathy with what he called the "progressive, conservative and constructive administration which Governor Brown has given to the people of Georgia since he was inaugurated."

A number of other speakers will be present and the entire day will be given over to pleasure and a gala time of it will be had by everyone present.

In addition to the large number of people from that section, many will go from Athens, Atlanta, Macon, Augusta and other points.

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN BY PYTHIAN SISTERS

Mrs. Flora Hall, of Savannah, Named Supreme Protector.

Milwaukee, Wis., August 3.—The subordinate lodges Knights of Pythias parade today attracted quite as much attention as did the uniform rank demonstration yesterday. Added interest prevailed by reason of the Pythian sisters' participation in the formation. They were conveyed in prettily decorated carriages and handgome floats.

In today's session of the Pythian Sisters the following oficers were elected:

Mrs. Sarah L. Cotton, of Weatherford, Texas, was elected supreme chief, being advanced from the office of supreme senior.

The next three officers were advanced from the positions held previously by them as follows:

Supreme senior, Mrs. Ira M. Johnson, Central City, Col.; supreme junior, Mrs. Cora M. Davis, Union, Ohio; supreme manager, Lilly Samuels, Oakland, Cal.; supreme protector, Mrs. Flora Hall, Savannah, Ga.; supreme mistress of records and correspondence, M. Josie Nelson, Union City, Ind., and supreme mistress of finance, Mrs. Ocea Basford, of Lancaster, Wis., were re-elected.

The National Pythian Educational Association elected the following officers for two years: H. M. Quinn, Jackson, Miss., president; Dewitt C. Cobb, Bridgton, N. J., vice president; Charles W. Baldwin, Chicago, secretary, and Roger C. Marcy, Chicago, treasurer.

GEO. LYNN'S ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE FAILS

Proprietor of Pressing Club Shoots Himself in Waycross Hotel.

Waycross, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) George Lynn, 28 years of age, the proprietor of the City Pressing Club, attempted suicide this morning at 9 o'clock in a room in the Southern hotel by shooting himself in the left breast near the heart.

There was no one in the room at the time. He had just left a friend in the hall. No cause can be assigned for the deed. It is thought he will recover.

Barfield Kills Himself.

Pensacola, Fla., August 3.—Despondency over the untimely death of his brother, who was shot a week ago, Charles A. Barfield, a prominent resident of Chipley, a small town east of here, killed himself late this afternoon by shooting through the heart.

BOYS' CORN CLUB EXCURSION PROVES A SPLENDID SUCCESS

Portion of the train load of members of the Boys' Corn Clubs, of Baldwin and Putnam counties, as they alighted in the State College of Agriculture farm, near Athens.

Athens, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—One of the most successful and satisfactory excursions to the State College of Agriculture was that operated by the Central of Georgia under the auspices of the Boys' Corn Clubs of Putnam and Baldwin counties, bringing more than three hundred boys and their fathers to the state college to attend the specially prepared and arranged program of demonstrations and lectures in the college and over the fields of the college farm. The significant feature of the excursion was that nearly every boy who came brought his father with him, and the fathers were as much interested and as enthusiastic in the success of their sons in the effort to raise the best acre of corn in Georgia as were the boys themselves. For examples, in the party was James Spivey, one of the largest landowners and most extensive planters of Putnam, with his son; Henry DeJarnette, of the same county, who owns and works more than six hundred acres of farm lands, accompanied by his son; Commissioners N. H. Bullard, of Baldwin, and W. C. Wright, of Putnam; Editor J. B. McAuliss, of The Milledgeville Times; Warren Edwards, of Milledgeville, and others. The party was also accompanied by about fifty ladies and girls.

CONSTITUTION BABY CONTEST AROUSING WIDE INTEREST

If anybody ever doubted that Atlanta has a host of the prettiest little babies that ever made their advent into this world, they would have all their doubts at once dissipated if they visited the studio of Photographer Wesley Hirshburg, 34½ Whitehall street, and gazed upon the hundreds of lovely baby pictures that Mr. Hirshburg has taken for The Constitution's Baby Picture Contest.

The baby pictures are stacked up by the hundreds, and as Mr. Hirshburg, who is one of the very best photographers in the country, has done most excellent work, the pictures present a gallery the like of which has never been seen in Atlanta before.

The Constitution has offered $100 in gold in prizes and all that has to be done is to clip the coupon from Sunday's Constitution and take it and the baby to Mr. Hirshburg's studio. It will not cost a penny to enter the contest.

Watch for the coupon in next Sunday's Constitution. The date on which the contest will close will be announced next Sunday. There is not much time remaining and if you want your dear, sweet little one to enter the contest do not delay any longer.

Tennessee's beer sales are increasing. Near?

Why not use the wireless to detect the pistol-toter?

It seems to be universally conceded that Crippen is a pippin.

At least, Mr. Bryan isn't running for probation officer in Nebraska.

It appears they need a few rough riders in the troubled borough of Spain.

At least, we have reached the retort-courteous stage in Georgia politics.

It is intensified campaigning to which we are being treated in Georgia.

Professor Bailey intimates the middleman is a parasite. Send for Theodore!

The Iowa insurgents are going to praise Taft "in spots." Probably put arnica on the others.

Another sort of stroke is coming to Uncle Joe Cannon when he reads the returns from Kansas.

Not a chirp from the "fire-eaters" since Attorney General Wickersham handed down his Lee decision.

This seems to be "prosperity year," from the way the Georgia counties are gaining on their tax returns.

Mr. Roosevelt might get away with that job as Haroun Al Raschid if it were not for the "dental display."

Now that the strike on the Grand Trunk is settled, we assume the smashing of them will be resumed.

President Taft announces he will push the issue of "economy." Likely he can't stand for the extravagance of Ballinger.

Peary is still said to be peeved. He might redeem the situation by sallying forth and discovering the South Pole.

Now that the Ananias Club has been reorganized, its membership may be expected to take on new and distinguished proportions.

Now the physician forbids "bouncing" your baby in your lap. If this edict increases night-walking, the neighborhood will kindly lynch the doctor.

The present turbulence in Spain is merely one more symptom of the desperate effort of a backward country to catch the stride of the twentieth century overnight.

In the high tide of Spain's success as a colonial power, she could defy the world. Later, as civilization, rebellion and disaffection dismembered its empire overseas, the mother country gradually sunk into a governmental apathy, coated over with graft and rottenness, which was accentuated during the Spanish-American war.

That event, however, served to show the nation how far behind civilization it had trailed. Since the treaty of Paris, it has made steady progress in developing stability of government and those domestic resources ignored for the lure of riches across the ocean.

Through the Moroccan bawl and the current and more serious quarrel with the vatican, the process of regeneration has proceeded. Whether it will displace Alphonso is another question.

BUILDINGS, NOT SHANTIES.

The park board has laid down the commendable principle that henceforth it will no longer sanction the erection of patchwork buildings on grounds under its jurisdiction.

This precedent was fixed in the discussion over the public comfort building projected for Piedmont Park, for which the board had plans prepared looking to an $11,000 building. That much not being now available, it very properly decides to stand pat on the policy of refusing to build at all unless the structure in question could be made of a stable and permanent nature.

President George Eubanks cited the cyclorama at Grant Park, now in a state of dilapidation, as an instance of the patchwork program, which is equivalent to wasting the city's money in the name of economy.

Not only in reference to park buildings, but as well in every phase of municipal construction, it is high time to discard the practice of building cheaply for the practice of building substantially.

There is no saving in putting up a building at nominal cost, if repairs and replacements are to ultimately run its price up far beyond what would have been necessary to construct it decently in the first place.

The $3,000,000 municipal bond issue ought to stand for all time as an indication to the authorities of the sentiment of the people of Atlanta for permanent, not patchwork, construction.

A RADICAL TRIUMPH FOR ARBITRATION.

The ending of the strike on the Grand Trunk system in this country and Canada ought to have a hopeful significance for the friends everywhere of peaceful methods of settling industrial disputes.

Of the four great wage quarrels that have this year threatened the integrity of prosperity, that on the Grand Trunk easily took precedence.

It is true that the threatened walk-out on the Pennsylvania reached that ominous stage where the management made actual preparations for a seige. But wise counsel prevailed and differences were adjusted without the stopping of a wheel.

Up to the time of that particular disagreement, it had easily ranked its predecessors in seriousness.

The Grand Trunk set a new record. Not only did employer and employees manifest a stubborn deafness to reason, but a strike actually developed and for a considerable period traffic was partially paralyzed.

Now all points of divergence have been resolved and men and corporation appear mutually satisfied.

It is worth remembering that in each of the successive threatened strikes there were the usual potentialities for the protracted and bloody trouble that has at times past marked these disturbances in America.

Yet each has one by one been adjusted, and today the only industrial dispute producing misgiving is the local disturbance at Columbus, Ohio.

Five years ago, the vindication of the principle of arbitration in such rapid succession would have been among the impossibilities. When employer and employee disagreed over hours or pay, the weapon almost invariably invoked was the strike or the lockout.

It is probable the unmistakable attitude of the public, the third great factor in all these affairs, has had as much to do with the augmented trend toward arbitration as has the volition of the other two principals.

Decades of disorder, loss of life and demoralization of business were required to beat into the public understanding that in the end these disagreements were always settled by mutual concession; that the resort to violence accomplished nothing but the substitution of anarchy for order.

It is doubtful if the purposes of justice and order would have been any better served had the country, during the past six months, had a compulsory arbitration law at its back. At the same time, now that all classes appear convinced of the wisdom of the principle, it would not be amiss if congress and the states gave it the force of legal enactment.

THE COLONEL AND THE PEOPLE.

Colonel Roosevelt is picturesquely adopting the incognito method of getting next to the people, as practiced with great success by that old sultan of the "Arabian Nights" and numerous less spectacular monarchs.

The only trouble in the colonel's case is that he is living in the age of the newspaper and the half-tone, which is equivalent to saying that it is almost as impossible for a public man of any prominence to walk abroad unrecognized as it is for a criminal to evade the long arm of twentieth-century law.

The difficulty is accentuated in the current instance for the reason that Mr. Roosevelt is today unquestionably the best-advertised man in the world.

This fact cropped out in his invasion of the heart of the Pennsylvania anthracite region the other day. For a time he passed unrecognized, but before he had made much progress, the famous "dental smile" and aggressive personality had betrayed him.

It is probable, also, that that is just what the colonel didn't want. It is easier for Theodore Roosevelt, private citizen, to get facts in the great mining district than for Theodore Roosevelt, former president.

The general purpose of his visit seems, however, to have been fulfilled. So that, whether he is gathering data for a magazine article or is merely seeking to familiarize himself at first hand with the intricacies of a big problem, he will likely go back to Oyster Bay charged to the muzzle with information.

Incidentally, the colonel will probably pursue his personally-conducted probe of national conditions with customary assiduity when his footsteps this autumn are directed to a tour which will include many parts of the country, notably the south and southwest.

Whatever role he is to play in the future of the country, it is plain that Mr. Roosevelt is not neglecting the first requisite of keeping close to the people. It was the healthiness of this asset, in the first instance, that made him powerful in office—and there is no reason to believe that, out of office, it will not reinforce his influence, in whatever direction he may care to direct that forceful factor.

THE NEGRO AT HIS BEST.

As The Constitution has already said, the performance booked for tonight at the Auditorium, under the auspices of the Atlanta Negro Musical Association, is well worthy the encouragement and patronage, not only of the race in whose behalf and by which it is given, but also of all those white people who are interested in encouraging good citizenship among all classes, white and black.

We hear much of race riots and criminal offenses chargeable to the worthless and indolent negro, but it is doubtful if any such trouble in the south has ever been, or can ever be, traced to the class represented by those who are conspicuous in the work of charity and race elevation as represented by tonight's effort, the direct beneficiary of which is to be the institutional department of the Colored Congregational church.

It is work of this kind that is being commended by all good citizens throughout the south, and there would no longer be any race problem, nor further cause for antagonism and racial animosity if the whole race were inspired by the standard so well represented by its better element tonight.

This occasion will afford the city a chance to see the negro at his best, and for this purpose 1,000 of the best seats in the house have been specially reserved for the white people, the mayor having accepted an invitation to be present.

GOVERNOR'S CONTEST.

Substituted Logic for Ginger.
(From The Macon News.)
Hoke actually cut out ginger and substituted logic all along the line.

As Few Questions as Possible.
(From The Darien Gazette.)
The legislature will probably ask Governor Brown as few questions as possible during the balance of the session.

Not One County Safe.
(From The Statesboro News.)
And the sands are fast slipping from under the feet of the Joe Brown support in Chatham.

Where's That Halo and Crown?
(From The Rome Tribune-Herald.)
By the way, the Hoke Smith howlers have had very little to say of late about that halo and crown. Did it get lost during the last campaign?

Can't Be Excelled.
(From The Waynesboro True Citizen.)
Governor Smith's administration stands out prominently as one of the best in the later years of our state, and he accomplished more than any other man in carrying out his pledges.

Was Provoking.
(From The Macon News.)
It was very provoking in Hoke Smith to ignore all the subjects he was expected to dwell on and talk about things to which there is no come-back.

Cutting Out Personals.
(From The Dalton Argus.)
"Hoke Smith at Work on Speech" says a headline in an exchange. Suppose he is going over one he used two years ago, cutting out the sling at "Little Joe."

The Only Issues.
(From The Waycross Herald.)
The only issues in Georgia this year are conditions now as compared with those of two years ago—prosperity and good feeling against hard times and bad feeling. Let prosperity and good feeling prosper.

What They Hope.
(From The Early County News.)
The state primary falls on the 23d day of the month. Some superstitious brothers wonder at the nerve of the candidates in staying in the race. We only hope that it may cause "Little Joe" to skiddoo back to that dear Marietta for keeps.

Exactly What It Means.
(From The Darien Gazette.)
The esteemed Macon Telegraph says "the fact that ex-Governor Smith's campaign cannot stir up any excitement proves that the people are satisfied with Governor Brown's administration." That is exactly what it means.

Who Wants to Look at Him?
(From The Brunswick News.)
"What has Joe Brown done?" He has taken the electric locks off of his office door, so that Hoke and other people can "see him" if they want to.—Valdosta Times.
But who in all the world would want to merely look at Joe Brown?

Most Flawless Political Address.
(From The Brunswick News.)
We are pleased that the Brown organs and the Brown managers enjoyed that Hoke Smith Waycross speech, for to our mind it's the most flawless political address we ever read, and it will bring many votes for the able statesman who wrote it.

Guilty of a Crime.
(From The Rome Tribune-Herald.)
According to the latest campaign dope, hereafter, rioters may get together, burn a town, kill all the people, and tear up things generally, and still the governor would be guilty of a crime if he ordered troops to the scene unless the sheriff saw fit to ask him.

E. H. WALKER COMMENTS ON BAILEY'S STATEMENT

Candidate for Governor Says It Is an Argument for His Election.

Candidate Edward H. Walker, in the race for governor, takes exception to a statement by Representative J. W. Bailey, of Miller county, who announced his change from Hoke Smith to Joe Brown. Mr. Bailey's statement in question was this:

"While it might be better to get rid of both of them, that being impossible, I think the ends of peace and prosperity can be best served by advocating the reelection of Governor Brown."

In regard to the foregoing, Mr. Walker says:

"The state government is completely tied up in the grip of factionalism, as Mr. Bailey says, and I believe well-thinking people feel that factionalism should be done away with.

"That being true, isn't it the duty of Georgia voters to vote for the anti-faction candidate?

"We had a factional campaign two years ago, and elected a candidate of one of the factions. Did that end factionalism? No, it didn't! Because the election of the candidate of one faction cannot end factionalism. It will be ended only when the voters of Georgia rise up and put both factional candidates out.

"Elect an anti-factional governor and factionalism is done for. Elect either factional candidate August 23, and representatives of these factions will be in the running in 1912."

WITH THERMOMETER 105 MAN IS FROZEN DEAD

Mexican Falls Asleep on Carload of Ice---Body Was Frozen Stiff.

El Paso, Texas, August 3.—Frozen dead with the thermometer at 105 in the shade was the fate of a Mexican at Maricopa, three hundred miles west of here, on the Arizona desert.

A carload of ice had been unloaded on the depot platform and covered with a heavy tarpaulin.

The man, seeking sleep and escape from the terrific heat, crawled beneath the tarpaulin, where he was found the next morning frozen stiff.

Japs Leaving United States.

Chicago, August 3.—K. Yamasaki, Japanese consul in Chicago, made public yesterday a statement prepared by Matsuzo Nagai, acting consul general of Japan at San Francisco, showing that for the last two and a half years Japanese have been returning from the United States to their own country in greater numbers than they have been coming.

Edwin R. Carswell, Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) The funeral of Edwin Ruthvin Carswell, who died suddenly here last night, was held today. He was a native of Screven county, and was a brother of J. F. Carswell, of Augusta; G. H. Carswell, of Screven county, and Mrs. E. E. Lane, of Bulloch county, and Mrs. J. D. Gross and Mrs. Annie Gross, of Screven county.

CONCEDES DEFEAT, SAYS ED MADDOX

Brown Chairman Hands Out The Gwinnett Journal as Evidence.

Chairman Ed Maddox, of the Joseph M. Brown campaign committee, was reading with considerable interest a clipping from The Gwinnett Journal, forwarded him from Lawrenceville yesterday, when The Constitution representative dropped in.

"Just look at that," said Chairman Maddox, "and if there is any doubt in the mind of anybody that Smith's friends have practically given up the race and conceded defeat that ought to settle it. The Gwinnett Journal has for four years been one of the most intense Hoke Smith papers in the state. The writer of this communication, W. G. McNelley, is a well-known state newspaper man and strongly for Smith, has been doing staff work for The Journal, which in this week's issue plays up Mr. McNelly's communication in large headlines on its first page. And among other things, this is what Mr. McNelly says:

"'Hoke Smith knows defeat stares him in the face, and he is going to his political death like a stoic. He deserves a better fate. He has been done to death by his friends; and after his second defeat by the quiet, silent "Little Joe" he will take his place among the great men of the past, whose ambitions were blasted by the cruelty of fate.

"'"Why, 'twas but yesterday an eagle,
Soaring high in air,
Was by a mousing owl
Hawked at and killed.'"

"'It is really pitiable to see how the machine is blinding the people of Georgia into voting for Brown. They are telling the voters that another panic will be brought to Georgia if Hoke Smith is elected. They say the New York bankers have already passed the word along that they will not allow any more money to come to Georgia if Smith is elected. And they point to the present prosperity, the high price of cotton, the gain of taxable property, all of these as direct results of Governor Brown's administration.

"'And this kind of clap-trap is having its effect.

"'Unless Hoke Smith and his followers can arouse the state to the fact that ring rule and machine politics are to be reenthroned by the election of Joe Brown, the ex-governor will be defeated and retired to the shades of oblivion after August 23, to be joined by "Little Joe" after fully recovering from his "accident."

"'Something may happen to change the state between now and August 23, in which case Smith may be elected by a landslide. But it now looks like the "machine" is in the saddle and will run rough shod to victory.

"'W. G. M'NELLEY.'"

John Thornton Falls Into Verse.

John R. Thornton, state agent of the Federal Casualty Company, has fallen into verse in his enthusiasm for "Brown and Bread," and supplies the following as an inspiration for campaign headquarters:

"Bread is the staff of life;"
Most of us like it "Brown,"
Since in "Little Joe" we've trusted
Georgia's corn cribs are almost busted.
So continue to give us "bread."
And not a complaint we'll utter,
For not very far ahead
We can see the milk and butter.

We cannot thrive on "ham."
Just take this gentle suggestion,
Old Georgia tried it once,
And it gave her indigestion.
This is no "fairy story."
This is no school boy's joke,
So give us "Brown and Bread"
And cut out "Ham and Hoke."

PROGRAM FOR MEETING OF GEORGIA DAIRYMEN

BUSY FALL EXPECTED BY JULIETTE MERCHANTS

Expected That Record Amount of Cotton Will Be Marketed.

It is expected that there will be considerable business activity here next fall, and local merchants are receiving heavy shipments of fall goods.

$25,093 TAXES PAID BY GEORGIA

Money Is Paid Under Recent Decision of Supreme Court.

An unexpected windfall benefited the state treasury yesterday to the extent of $25,093. This amount was collected from the Georgia railroad by the comptroller general under a recent decision of the supreme court of the United States.

The supreme court decided against the state's contention in regard to what the original charter exemption of the Georgia railroad covered, but it held that the Washington branch of the road and certain cash items were not covered by the exemption.

The Georgia railroad declined to build the Washington branch under its original charter, and it was constructed by a separate subsidiary corporation.

General Manager T. K. Scott was in Atlanta on Monday discussing the matter with Comptroller General William A. Wright, and the check for $25,093 to cover the back taxes was forwarded on his return home.

State Treasurer J. Pope Brown expressed great satisfaction at the unexpected payment, which swelled the dwindling cash in the state's strong box.

CRUSHERS ARE WORKING FOR UNIFORM FEED LAW

Meeting to Consider Law Will Probably Be Held in Washington in November.

W. A. Reynolds, of Charlotte, N. C., chairman of the special committee from the Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers' Association, appointed to confer with the feed control commission to recommend a uniform feed law, has written to the members of the special committee from the Georgia association, that the meeting will probably be held in Washington, D. C., during November.

At the recent convention of the Georgia association, held at Tallulah Falls, former President Fielding Wallace, then presiding, named the following committee from Georgia to confer with the committee headed by Mr. Reynolds in working up the uniform feed law: R. A. Kelly, chairman, Tennille, Ga.; F. M. Barnes, Cincinnati, Ohio; C. M. King, Greensboro, Ga.; E. C. Ponder, Rutledge, Ga., and A. O. Blalock, Fayetteville, Ga.

The Interstate association and the various state associations are uniting in an effort to secure legislation throughout the country which will make all laws relating to feed stuffs uniform. In a great many states cotton seed hulls are classed as an adulterant whereas scientific feeders have long since proven that when properly mixed with cotton seed meal, it makes the least expensive and at the same time most desirable feed for work stock and cattle on the market.

DANIEL E. CONKLIN DIES AT CARLSBAD

Brother of Chas. A. Conklin Dies in Europe—A Prominent Baltimorean.

News was received in Atlanta yesterday of the death at Carsbad, Germany, of Daniel E. Conklin, brother of Charles A. Conklin, one of Atlanta's most prominent business men.

Mr. Conklin left Baltimore, his home, some weeks ago in hope of regaining his failing health by treatment at Carlsbad. He was accompanied by William A. Marburg, of Baltimore, and Jacob Schmidlapp, of Cincinnati, two warm personal friends. Mrs. Conklin making a visit to her sister, Mrs. Charles W. Fox, of Philadelphia, during his absence.

Mr. Conklin did very well for awhile, but when attacked by uraemic poisoning the end came rapidly, and he died Saturday at Carlsbad.

Charles A. Conklin and his family are now at Halifax, Nova Scotia, but he will meet his brother's body upon arrival in New York.

Referring to his death, The Baltimore Sun says:

"Mr. Conklin was born on Long Island seventy-five years ago, and moved to Maryland immediately preceding the civil war. Until 1867 he was engaged in general merchandising in Cumberland, when he removed to Baltimore and engaged in the tin business on Sharp street. He organized the firm of Conklin, Willis & Co., tin jobbers, with which he was connected for a number of years.

"Later he entered the company of Lyon, Conklin & Co., and was for a number of years actively engaged in the manufacture of tinware. He sold out his interest in that firm some years ago and retired from active business, though he remained in the directorate of the National Union bank and the Continental Trust Company. Six months ago, when the Bartlett-Hayward Company was organized, after the copartnership of Bartlett & Hayward was dissolved, Mr. Conklin became second vice president of the company.

"Mr. Conklin was an active member of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association from its formation, and was one of the leaders in many movements for civic and business advancement undertaken by that association. Until within the last few years he was the prime mover in the annual banquets of the association and usually headed the hospitality committee, which arranged for the speakers. He frequently entertained speakers from a distance who attended the banquet, and in that way became intimately acquainted with a number of business men and political leaders in other states.

"The news of Mr. Conklin's death was received with sorrow in this city among his many friends. Probably his chief characteristic was his enthusiasm for any cause he championed. This was shown in his business enterprises, his labors in political campaigns and in the social events with which he was connected. He was a prime mover in the old Oriole celebrations, and did much to make those occasions successful.

"Besides his widow, Mr. Conklin is survived by one brother, Mr. Charles A. Conklin, who is a prominent business man of Atlanta, Ga.

"In respect to the memory of Mr. Conklin the flag on the Continental building and on the Merchants' Club were at half-mast yesterday.

"The Young Men's Republican Club adopted resolutions of respect to the memory of Mr. Conklin, who was a member of the club. The flag was placed at half-mast."

He would then borrow money leaving as a pledge the "gold ring which he would not lose for the world." Inscribed within the ring would be "From W. to C. Feb. 5, '08." It was not until a number of his generous dupes got together and compared notes that the clever scheme was discovered.

CHANGE IS MADE IN STATE BOARD

School Commissioner Is Made Secretary.

An important change in the educational system of the state was effected yesterday afternoon when the house passed the bill reorganizing the state board of education.

As at present constituted, the board is composed of the governor, the attorney general, the state school commissioner, the secretary of state and the comptroller general.

Under the provisions of the bill, as passed Wednesday afternoon, the secretary of state and the comptroller general are stricken from the board and six citizens of the state are added to its membership. The bill provides that the six additional members shall be prominent educators of the state and shall be selected by the governor, the attorney general and the state school commissioner, who shall in future be known as the state superintendent of public instruction.

How Board Will Be Named.

It is provided that two of the six members be elected for two years, two for four years and two for six years and that elections after the first two years shall be for six years each.

The bill greatly enlarges the power of the board, among them being the following: To prescribe and enforce rules governing the certification of teachers' institutes, the adoption of the state course of study and text-books to be used in the public common schools of the state; to recommend to the governor the tax rate for common schools, provided such rate shall never be less than 1.8 mills per dollar on all taxable property of the state; to grant certificates entitling holders to teach in the schools of the state; to adopt text-books without the aid of a subcommission.

The bill also provides that the state school commissioner shall be known as the state superintendent of public instruction; that he shall be charged with the general superintendence of the instruction given in the common schools of the state, the course of study therefor, for the examination of teachers, the direction of teachers' institutues of the respective counties, the supervision of the work of the county superintendents; that he shall be ex-officia, the secretary and executive agent of the board of education and that he shall receive therefor a salary of not more than $1,600 per year, which is in addition to the salary of $2,000 which he now receives, and that he shall also be a member of the boards of trustees of the various educational institutions which receive support from the state.

Known as Superintendent.

The measure further provides that the county school commissioner shall in future be known as the county superintendent of education.

The bill, as passed by the house, was a substitute for four bills to the same intent which were introduced in the house by Mr. McMichael, of Marion, and Mr. Persons, of Monroe. The substitute was prepared from those bills by the committee on education.

The first bill along the line of the bill passed by the house Wednesday was introduced by Mr. McMichael in 1908. There was great opposition to the measure at the time and he introduced it again in 1909.

Mr. McMichael and Mr. Persons got together on their various bills and the bill passed by the house Wednesday was the result. There were no speeches made against it and it passed by the vote of 96 to 13.

Judicial Circuit of Toombs.

The house of representatives yesterday afternoon passed the bill creating the new judicial circuit of Toombs. It is to be composed of the counties of Warren, Wilkes, Taliaferro, Lincoln and Glascock, which are to be taken from the Northern circuit.

The bill creating the circuit was introduced by Messrs. Ragsdale and Booker, of Wilkes.

NO COUNTY LEVY FOR HIGH SCHOOLS

Local Taxation Bill Beaten in Senate.

Senate Refuses to Sanction Change in Time for Legislative Sessions---Declines to Reconsider Appropriation for Georgia Normal College.

WEDNESDAY IN THE SENATE.

Reconsidered vote killing the provision for plans and specifications for a new building of the North Georgia Agricultural College at Dahlonega.

Passed bill prohibiting anyone from discharging firearms at, toward or into an occupied dwelling house.

Passed bill providing for inspection and grading of hay and grain under the direction of the state department of agriculture.

Refused to sanction change in time for holding legislative sessions.

Declined to permit county taxation for high schools.

The state senate declined on yesterday to permit county taxation for high schools, and also refused to sanction any change in the time for holding the annual legislative sessions.

In its four hours of hard work, the senate disposed of several measures of general importance and a large number of local bills.

The most extended debate of the day came over the proposal to reconsider the vote by which the appropriation of $35,000 for a new building on the campus of the Georgia Normal and Industrial Institute at Milledgeville, was passed. The effort failed. Senator Burwell led the fight for the appropriation.

At the request of Senator Slaton his bill providing for the inspection and grading of hay and grain under the supervision of the department of agriculture was taken up and passed.

Senator Burwell secured unanimous consent to have placed on its passage the bill to provide for establishing lost certificates of stock. The bill was introduced in the house by Mr. Vinson, of Baldwin. It was reported by substitute from the senate appropriations committee and passed.

Senator Slater secured unanimous consent to introduce a bill to amend the state constitution so as to increase the governor's borrowing power to meet casual deficiencies from $300,000 to $500,000.

Senator Harrell brought up his bill to prohibit any person shooting at, toward or into an occupied dwelling house. Senator Burwell said he was for the bill, but thought the word "wilfully" should be inserted. Mr. Harrell objected, saying the burden of proof should be put upon the accused to show that the shooting was accidental. The bill was read the third time and passed.

Meeting of Legislature.

Senator McCurry called up the bill to change the time for holding the legislative sessions so as to make the date of convening the second Wednesday in October instead of the fourth Wednesday in June. On the motion to disagree with the adverse report of the committee the ayes were 5 and the nays 32. The motion was lost.

Senator Mathews then called up his constitutional amendment to change paragraph 2, section 6, article 7 of the constitution so as to strike the words "in the elementary branches of an English education."

The object of the bill is to permit the legislature to delegate to any county in the state the right to tax itself for the purpose of establishing secondary or high schools.

At present the counties are only permitted to levy local taxes for common schools.

Senator Harrell opposed the bill, saying he was opposed to all local taxation for school purposes. He thought it would be a burden on the poor counties.

Senator Mathews in supporting the measure said the privilege of local taxation for county schools had not adversely affected state taxation for schools and that the state appropriation had steadily increased to a point where it was difficult to raise the money to meet them. In view of these heavy appropriations, he thought the school system should be carried beyond the three R's.

The bill failed to receive the requisite constitutional majority, the vote being 17 to 10.

Motion to Reconsider Lost.

Senator Longley asked reconsideration of the bill passed by the senate on Tuesday appropriating $5,000 for a new building for the Georgia Normal and Industrial college at Milledgeville.

He spoke of the state of the treasury and the prediction that only $20,000 would be available on September 1.

Senator Burwell defended the appropriation. He pleaded earnestly with senators not to change their stand on the bill.

Senator Calhoun spoke in favor of the motion to reconsider. He said instead of spending so much at one school, there should be several. There was only one school in the state for girls, but many for boys, he said.

The ayes and nays were called by Senator Calhoun on the motion of Senator Longley. The ayes were 5 and the nays 29.

The motion to reconsider was lost.

On motion of Mr. Calhoun the senate went into executive session and confirmed the nomination of Hamilton Burch to be solicitor of the city court of McRae.

New Bills Introduced.

The following new bills were introduced:

By Mr. Ward—To require railroads to fence in their right-of-way.

Senator Thompson sought to secure reconsideration of the resolution authorizing the trustees of the North Georgia Agricultural college to have plans and specifications prepared for a new building to be erected on the college campus at Dahlonega. He said the school was doing more for the poor boys and girls of Georgia than any other institution supported by the state. The motion prevailed.

Local Bills Passed.

The senate passed the following local bills:

To amend act creating board of county commissioners of Turner county.

To amend charter of Sycamore.

To regulate fox hunting in White county.

To abolish city court of Calhoun county.

To incorporate Oakhurst, in DeKalb county.

To incorporate city of Sale City.

RESOLUTION IN HOUSE TO PRESERVE "TEXAS"

An opportunity to preserve to posterity the engine "Texas," of civil war fame, is given the Georgia legislature in a resolution which Representatives Alexander of Fulton and Brinson of Decatur introduced in the house yesterday afternoon.

The resolution provides that the old engine shall be given to the city of Atlanta, provided the consent of the lessees can be secured. The resolution was referred to the committee on the affairs of the Western and Atlantic railroad, and it is believed it will be passed by the house.

The "Texas" won a place in the Hall of Fame by reason of the fact that its driving wheels were able to turn just a little faster than the wheels of the engine, "General," which was captured on the Western and Atlantic railroad by Andrews' raiders during the civil war. Manned by Confederate soldiers, the Texas outran the General, overhauling it at Resaca, after an exciting chase.

The "General" is now on permanent exhibition in the depot at Chattanooga, and the authors of the resolution desire that its companion in historic fame be similarly honored in Atlanta.

BOY MESSENGERS BARRED AT NIGHT

House Passes Bill in Amended Shape.

Afternoon Sessions Dispensed With, and Morning Sessions Are Lengthened---Bill to Prohibit Publication of Abusive Language Beaten.

WEDNESDAY IN THE HOUSE

Lengthened morning session one and a half hours and dispensed with afternoon sessions.

Passed the bill raising the penalty for embezzlement from 2 to 7 years to 2 to 20 years.

Passed the messenger service bill.

Defeated the bill prohibiting the publication of opprobrious words or abusive language of another.

Defeated the senate bill authorizing the legislature to abolish the office of county treasurer.

By the vote of 130 to 26, the house of representatives yesterday morning passed the bill by Mr. Alexander, of DeKalb, regulating the employment of minors in the messenger service.

The bill met with considerable opposition in the house, and was extensively amended. As finally passed, it provides that no boy under 16 years of age shall be employed as a messenger between the hours of 9 o'clock in the evening and 6 o'clock in the morning.

An amendment providing that the law should not apply to towns of less than 5,000 population was voted down.

Joe Hill Hall Opposes.

Mr. Hall, of Bibb, and others opposing the bill, declared that, as it was submitted for passage, the measure prohibited a father from sending his son as a messenger.

Mr. Alexander of DeKalb, Mr. Anderson of Chatham and others, who favored the bill, declared that such a position amounted to hair-splitting, and that everyone knew it was intended to apply only to boys employed in the messenger service.

On motion of Mr. Hall, of Bibb, the house voted almost unanimously to dispense with afternoon sessions, and to hold morning sessions from 9 to 2 o'clock, instead of from 9:30 to 1 o'clock.

Mr. Hall stated in explanation that it appears to be impossible to secure the presence of a full house at the afternoon sessions.

Mr. Anderson, who had previously succeeded in having the afternoon sessions extended for thirty minutes, opposed the motion to dispense with afternoon sessions.

Bill of Mr. Lewis Defeated.

By the vote of 33 ayes to 67 noes the house defeated the bill by Mr. Lewis, of Hancock, to prohibit the publication of any opprobrious words or abusive language of another tending to cause a breach of the peace.

Mr. Barrett, of Stephens, said he thought that if a man is a liar or a thief, he might as well be called a liar and a thief in the public prints, and he opposed the bill.

Mr. Pickett, of Terrell, opposed the bill on the ground that he is opposed to muzzling the press to such an extent as the bill provided.

The bill by Mr. Chandler, of Franklin, was passed, raising the penalty for embezzlement from 2 to 7 years to 2 to 20 years.

After lengthy argument, the house defeated the bill by Senator Price authorizing the legislature to abolish the office of county treasurer whenever it sees fit to do so. The bill received 112 votes to 41 against it; but, since it was a constitutional amendment, 123 votes were necessary to pass it.

No Responsible Party.

Mr. Hall, of Bibb, opposed the bill on the ground that if the treasurer should be removed there would be no responsible party to whom the funds of the county could be entrusted, and that if they were entrusted to a bank there would be no method of keeping a check on the accounts.

Mr. White of Screven, Mr. Upshaw of Douglas and others spoke in favor of the bill. They declared that the office of county treasurer is out of date, and a needless expense, and they took the position that if the county funds are placed in the charge of a bank they can be safeguarded there just as well as they can when in the keeping of a treasurer.

After the bill was defeated, Mr. White gave notice that at the proper time he will move that the house reconsider its action in defeating it.

In view of the fact that sufficient time is not now allowed for constitutional amendments to pass the senate and be advertised in time for the consideration of the people at the general election, Mr. Anderson, of Chatham, secured the consent of the house to have all such house bills tabled.

The following new bills were read in the house Wednesday:

By Mr. Paulk of Berrien—To amend the charter of the city of Nashville.

By Mr. Alexander of Fulton—To provide for placing benches on the capitol grounds.

By Mr. Calbeck of Gordon—To amend the charter of the town of Calhoun.

By Mr. Pope of Brooks—To repeal an act amending the charter of Barwick.

By Messrs. Jones and Keith of Meriwether—To incorporate the town of Durand.

By Mr. Gastley of Habersham—To create a board of commissioners of roads and revenues for Habersham county.

By Messrs. Brown, Alexander and McElreath of Fulton—To amend the act reorganizing the military forces of the state.

By Mr. Meadows of Telfair—To amend the act incorporating the town of Milan.

By Messrs. Brown, McElreath and Alexander of Fulton—To prohibit the use of common drinking cups in public places.

By Mr. Elder of Oconee—To request the removal of H. A. Rucker, collector of internal revenue.

TO THE CITIZENS OF FULTON COUNTY:

Mr. Frank Wilby, by solicitation of those who know him well, has announced his candidacy for Commissioner of Fulton county.

Mr. Wilby is well and favorably known to many residents of the city and county. We know him to be a man of the highest order of intelligence and integrity and remarkably well informed as to city and county matters.

Mr. Wilby is of untiring energy, public-spirited, and we heartily indorse his candidacy, believing that if elected he will see to it that the neglected highways are brought up to the standard, and that no money will be spent in real estate speculation. He will stand guard of the people's money, and will answer to them for his official conduct and not to any faction, corporation or real estate promoters.

Mr. Wilby promises to publish monthly a statement showing where the county's monies are spent and on what roads the convicts are at work.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Susie Yarbrough, entered the bridal party. Professor Walter P. Thomas of West Point, Judge Welburn Moore of Sparta, Professor T. H. Smoot of Atlanta, and Mr. John Holmes of Sparta, acted as ushers. Eakes officiated, using the ring ceremony. The bride and groom left on an afternoon train for an extended trip. The bride, as Miss Mary Thomas, was one of Sparta's most lovable and charming young women, and numbered her friends by the score. ### New Barge Line.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE ON LINE TO MARIETTA

The substitution of trailers for the double car service and the replacing of alternating current motors with direct current motors—improvements which will be made on the Atlanta Northern Railway this week—are expected to materially benefit the service which the road gives between this city and Marietta. The installation of the direct current motors has already been completed and the trailers will be substituted within the next week.

These improvements, which will cost the company in the neighborhood of $50,000, make it possible to run an almost unlimited number of cars from Atlanta to Marietta. Two additional power houses were found necessary for the direct current motors and these have been erected, one at Smyrna and the other at the Chattahoochee river.

USEFUL LAW VOLUME PUBLISHED BY GEORGIAN

Dean E. Ryman Is Author of "Georgia Words and Phrases."

Dean E. Ryman, a young member of the Georgia bar, who recently located in Atlanta, has just published a volume of "Georgia Words and Phrases" that has been highly commended by his colleagues in the legal profession. The book contains 871 pages and 4,000 definitions of words taken from Georgia reports. It has been issued by the Harrison Company, of Atlanta.

DEAN E. RYMAN,
Of Atlanta Bar, formerly of Fitzgerald, author of extensive volume on legal words and phrases.

The work is said to contain 1,000 more words and phrases than any other similar work of the kind, and sets out fully all binding Georgia constructions of every legal or non-legal expression which has appeared in a statute, legal instrument or conversation resulting in legal rights and duties.

The book was compiled from a page-to-page reading of the Georgia Reports and is an exhaustive compilation of Georgia judicial definitions from R. M. Charlton to the one hundred and thirty-third volume of Georgia Reports and the sixth volume of court of appeals reports. The arrangement is alphabetical, with cross references to make every word or phrase similar to the one in mind readily accessible.

Mr. Ryman, the young author, was born in Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1888, and moved to Fitzgerald, Ga., with his father when the south Georgia metropolis was settled, in 1895. He completed his education and graduated in law from the University of Michigan, and entered the practice of his profession before he was out of his teens. After practicing for a year with Colonel J. B. Wall, he returned to his alma mater and completed a post-graduate course.

R. W. Ryman, the father of Dean E. Ryman, was for twelve years city attorney of Fitzgerald.

BETTING IN CHATHAM OVER GOVERNOR'S RACE

Registration Lower Than Two Years Ago---Gov. Brown's Friends Claim County.

Savannah, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Much interest is expressed in Savannah over the betting in the governor's race, in which Chatham county is interested. While Chatham county's registration is far below what it was in 1908, it is claimed by supporters of Governor Brown that the majority for him will be proportionately as large as it was in that year.

The Hoke Smith Club held an organization meeting tonight. It was called by former President U. H. McLaws, of the club which supported the ex-governor in his first race against Governor Brown.

The Joe Brown Club's membership indicates no serious defections from the ranks of his followers in any class, railroad men and traveling men included.

Early Morning Blaze Ruins Trammell's Stock.

Rome, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Fire at 4 o'clock this morning practically destroyed the grocery store of Henry C. Trammell, at 206 Kingston avenue.

WATSON DENIES VIOLENCE CHARGE

Thomson, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Thomas E. Watson today issued the following statement:

The last article which Hardwick has put forth over the signature of Bob Kelly is the funniest caper that he has cut yet.

In 1892 Bob Kelly took bodily possession of me and carried me to his house. He forced himself into the position of the local big cheese. After the election was over he did two things; ran for ordinary and presented me a prodigious bill for alleged expenditures on my behalf.

The account was rotten and I refused to pay it. Finally, however, at the instance of friends at Tennille, I paid him a very much larger sum than he was entitled to, but it left Bob with a permanent grouch.

Little Hardwick has captialized this old grouch for political purposes, just as he has made an asset of every other old grouch, personal and political, that the political and professional conflicts of the last 20 years have left in the Tenth district.

After having learned from The Chronicle that I was to speak at Louisville on the 13th he arrogantly gave me the dare by saying that he would come to our county courthouse to show up my public character. He has been telling his friends throughout the district that he would produce at Thomson the affidavit of some Edmondson to prove that I lied about the repudiated gambling debt and the virtual face-slapping of Hardwick by Edmondson. He has also told his friends privately that he would produce affidavits and letters from republicans that they paid me $50,000 while I was in congress, in return for which I was to break up the democratic party.

When this two-deuce bluffer published in The Augusta Herald of last Friday his intention of coming to the McDuffie county courthouse to assail my public character, I immediately determined to be present.

My honor as a public man is quite as dear to me as my honor as a private citizen.

Under our law the meanest negro is entitled to be confronted by the evidence produced against him before he is convicted and punished. Am I not entitled to the same rights?

The unwritten law has been that a public man is not to be attacked in his home town or county. I am the only man who has been excluded from the benefits of this rule, just as I am the only man that ever was denied the right to be heard in defense of his seat in congress.

Comparatively, I have no rights whatever that my opponents are bound to respect. I am not a candidate for any office. Hardwick has for two years been assailing me as though I were. He had no more right to assail my private and public character because of my failure to support him again for congress than he has to assail that of Jim Hogan, Major McGregor, Horace Holden or any other prominent man of the district who takes the same stand that I do.

Hardwick the Aggressor.

He was the aggressor in 1908, when, without any cause whatever, he assailed me in Macon. He was the aggressor when he made his appointment at Thomson on a day which we had already selected for our meeting. He was the aggressor when he advertised his intention of especially attacking me in his speech at Thomson. If I had acted otherwise than I did I would have been the veriest coward on earth. He has been applying that term to me, and some of his friends have been mailing unsigned post cards to the same effect. On trial for my honor, which is dearer than life, I merely asked for the privilege of being present before being convicted and punished.

Will Not Allow.

Instead of meeting me face to face like a man, he is going into private grounds to have the trial, the ex parte hearing of his alleged evidence. I shall not follow him in his flight. My meeting will be at the McDuffie county courthouse, where he said his would be.

Through Bob Kelley, it is stated by Hardwick, that it is news to the populists that Hardwick burglarized Judge Newman's office and stole those tax fi. fas. I agree with you there, Bob. It was news to me, indeed. Locked in my iron safe is a letter, Bob, which would convince even you that your little man led the band of burglars. Hardwick would not dare to face that letter from the Baptist preacher in the presence of a big crowd. His impudence would fail him, and the crowd would read his guilt on his countenance.

By the way, Bob, how does it feel to be campaign manager for a burglar? They are telling me that my call for my friends to come prepared to stand by me to the death has been construed as an encouragement to violence. It shocks me to learn that anyone should put such a construction upon my language. Did I not open my address at Thomson, on July 23, with the statement that my life was in danger? My son-in-law, Oscar Lee, is no alarmist, and no upholder of violence of any kind, yet he feels it to be his duty to inform me that he was requested by reliable people in Hancock county to tell me that Hardwick had been making threats against my life. This morning's mail brings me a letter from Lincolnton, which states that Hardwick made the same threat over there. He said that if I spoke in his home town I would not come away from there alive. I never intended to speak in Sandersville during this campaign, but in The Augusta Chronicle and The Macon Telegraph it was stated that I would speak in Louisville, Jefferson county, on the 13th of this month. By a mistake here or in the Atlanta office which I can't understand, last week's Jeffersonian had Sandersville instead of Louisville. I immediately corrected the error by private letters and by an article in The Macon Telegraph. Of course, a correction was sent to our Atlanta office, and the right name appears in this week's Jeffersonian.

With these threats repeated from one end of the district to the other by Hardwick, himself, does it require any vivid imagination to see what kind of spirit it will foster in his followers? Was it difficult to anticipate that when he came rushing over to Thomson to denounce me he would bring his crowd with him?

Whisky on Trains.

Don't we all know that there will be whisky on his special trains? Can we doubt that many of the Hardwick crowd will be under the influence of Hardwick whisky? Is it any secret that many Catholics of Augusta furiously resent the attack on their hierarchy contained in the last number of my magazine?

Never have I been guilty of insulting anybody, but, as a strong Baptist, I have profound conviction that ecclesiastical hierarchies of all kinds are extremely dangerous to civil liberty and human progress.

Have we forgotten that Gonzales was shot down like a dog on the streets of Columbia, S. C.? Is your memory so short that you have forgotten that Goebel's fight on the Louisville and Nashville railroad ended in his assassination? The recently and foully shed blood of the brilliant Carmack yet cries aloud and in vain for vengeance.

When such a cool old man as Obadiah Cloud is prompted to write me, reminding me of the facts of these men, have I no grounds for asking my friends to come here prepared to protect me from such imported gangs as Hardwick is going to bring Saturday?

Will Control Followers.

In the wild days of the '90's I was always able to control my men; I will control them Saturday. They will be as sober and orderly as they were on July 23. They will be prepared to give me protection from the Hardwick whisky drinkers and the Hardwick roughs that he will import. Put yourself in my place before you condemn me. Don't be unfair to me. Try to see that my attitude has been defensive throughout. Try to believe that it will be defensive next Saturday. Try to get into your mind the fact that Hardwick threatened to kill me if I went to his town to speak against him, and then advised his purpose to come to my town to denounce me. Try to picture to yourself the kind of crowds that Hardwick will bring on these special trains. There was gambling and whisky drinking in his private room the day he spoke in Louisville. There will be gambling and drinking on those special trains. Think of the conditions and the temper that they will be in by the time they reach Thomson.

No Lives to Throw Away.

Nobody who ever really knew me ever had any doubt of my courage, but I have no lives to throw away, and I am aware of the dangers which surround me.

A man who burglarized the ordinary's office as Hardwick did, and who is ten times more desperate and determined to carry his point now than he ever was before, would not hesitate at anything. It would be the height of folly not to be prepared for him, in this case as in many others, the best way to avoid trouble is to be ready for it. I hereby pledge both myself and my friends to act strictly on the defensive.

It was Hardwick who made a bad situation by rushing in on our appointment, but I will do my utmost to prevent a breach of the peace. Not for personal gain or power, and not from personal malice have I been bending such tremendous efforts to the patriotic work of getting better representatives for Georgia in congress.

No preacher ever entered a pulpit with a deeper sense of consecration than that which has inspired me in the work that I am doing. If God spares me, and the people come to my support, the greatest work of my life is yet to come. Let the citizen overlook petty mistakes and faults that are purely temperamental. Let him try to see in me a man actuated by the lofty motive of winning back for the south the splendid position which she occupied before the civil war, and of regaining for the people that system of Jeffersonian laws under which they were prosperous and happy. Were I to come off worsted next Saturday, I might as well furl my banner and break my sword.

But I shall not fail. Old Man Peepul, be here, and when I get through a calm, dispassionate review of the situation, the man who started all this bitter war will be practically out of the race for congress.

FAIR WEATHER TODAY, SAYS WEATHER MAN

Fair, With Local Thunder Storms Now and Then, for Some Time to Come.

Georgia Limerick—No. 1.

There was a young lady of Macon
Who doted on cornbread and bacon;
But when she was wedded
She ate wheat that was shredded,
And about all her food she would take on.

—G. N. H.

The south wind was gently blowing yesterday, and today the weather will be fair. As a general rule, August is a very fair month. There is much sunshine, a few good showers, and cool and pleasant nights—and that is "fair."

The weather man says that we can expect fair weather with a local thunderstorm now and then for some time to come.

The Gopher's weather poet has undertaken to rush off a few Georgia limericks. This time he has written about the city of Macon. He had some trouble with the rhyme for the third line. When he hits Columbus, Savannah, Augusta, Athens and other almost unrhymable names, he is going to have a hard time, and if the rhythm is far-fetched, the weather reading public will have to bear with his hard-taxed muse.

The Gopher says he has heard about two young men who were the victims of hot weather and spiked drinks. A sauce bottle used as a weapon of attack made both of them very "saucy," and they exchanged some blows which they both forgot the next morning. Cut lips and bruises on the head made them awake with wonder.

"This goes to prove," the Gopher says, "that you should let spiked drinks alone during the hot spell."

THEY WERE BOTH VERY "SAUCY."

CRACKERS AT SULPHUR DELL TODAY

Edited By DICK JEMISON

GRIFFIN HOLDS LOOKOUTS SAFE

Only Get Two Hits Off His Fine Delivery.

Griffin Responsible for Their Runs by His Wildness—He Tied It Up With Single—Moran's Hitting Good—Berkel Scored Winning Tally.

John Griffin, the big right-hander of the Crackers, was in great form yesterday, and as the result, the Crackers copped the final game of the final appearance of the Lookouts in this city by the score of 2 to 1.

In the first inning, Griffin could not locate the plate and as the result, the only run that the Lookouts could send over the pan was made as the result of his work alone. But after that he settled down. The Lookouts made but one clean hit off of his delivery, the other being a scratch past first.

Victor Schlitzer, of pitch ball fame, got into the game for the first time in two weeks, and twirled a nice game, but he could not stick it out, as he was weakening from the effort. Al Demaree, the near-Cracker, finished it, and he was wild, which, with a couple of errors on sacrifices, netted the winning run of the game.

Johnny Berkel continued his fast work on the shortfield, one of his stops, a slow roller, from McLaurin's bat in the fourth, being one of the fastest plays ever made on the local diamond.

Sid Smith caught a good game, and his peg to first in the sixth inning, right after Schlitzer had made his hit, caught that worthy standing up. It was wone of those rapid-fire throws that no one was expecting, and Otto Jordan nailed the man good.

Fisher also made a good stop of a hard-hit ball from Lister's bat in the eighth that robbed the Lookouts' first sacker of a clean hit.

MORAN HITS.

Roy Moran was the only man on either line-up that could hit consistently. The first two trips up to the plate Roy pasted two fine liners to left field for one sack. These were the kind of hits you read about.

But to return to the game. Griffin could not locate the plate for McMahon, and he strolled on four bad ones. Johnston laid down the necessary sacrifice, McMahon moving to second. On Yerkes' long fly to Dick Bayless, Mac went to third, and when Griffin cut loose a wild pitch with Perry at bat, the first tally of the game came home.

Atlanta had been only able to make two hits up until the fifth inning, and Chattanooga not a one. In the fifth, Bayless hit one that Johnston could not quite get under, the hit going for two bags. Walker sacrificed him, and Griffin tied up his own game by a pretty single to center field, that scored Bayless.

The Lookouts' first hit came in the sixth, a grounder between Jordan and Fisher. Jordan made a pretty stop in the sixth, when, with Yerkes on second, Sid threw to catch him off. Otto speared it with his bare hand.

CRACKERS WIN IT.

Things then rocked along until the eighth inning, when Berkel worked Demaree, who had just gone on the mound for a base on balls. Griffin laid down a bunt, which McMahon threw bad on, both hands being safe. Moran then laid down a bunt, and when Higgins threw wild to third, Berkel scampered home with what proved to be the winning tally. Quick work put the Crackers out, a fast double play and a good throw to first of Demaree, getting three men out in less time than it takes to tell it.

With the result of yesterday's game, the Crackers now stand nine games won to the Lookouts' eight on the season. Here are the figures:

$10,000 STAKE WON BY DUDIE ARCHDALE

Little Black Trotter Easily Captures Detroit Prize.

Detroit, Mich., August 3.—The Merchants and Manufacturers' $10,000 stake was won easily in straight heats at the Fair Grounds today by the little black mare Dudie Archdale, with the veteran Geers in the sulky. The race was too one-sided to be to any great degree exciting and the odds of 3 to 1 on Dudie Archdale over the entire field minimized the interest taken in the betting.

Today's feature race was the third $10,000 event that the black trotter has won in as many weeks, the other two having been the Furniture Manufacturers' stake at Grand Rapids, and the Paper Mills $10,000 event at Kalamazoo. Summaries:

2:20 trot (3 in 5), purse $1,000: Joan, brf., by Directum Spier-Sarah W., by Hal Braden, won; Sable Maid, blk. m., Rudy-Margaret Mills, by Waltz, second; Roberta, br. g., third. Best time, 2:10½.

2:24 trot (3 in 5), purse $10,000, Merchants and Manufacturers' stake: Dudie Archdale, blk. m., Archidale-Dudie Egmont by Egmont Chief, won; Aric Leyburn, br. g., second; Henry H., br. g., third. Best time, 2:08¼.

2:12 pace (3 in 5), purse $1,000: May Day, b. m., Commutation-July, by Charley Wilkes, won; Peter Pan, b. g., Decourcy-Daisy G., by Jay Gould, second; German Boy, b. g., third. Best time, 2:05½.

2:07 pace (2 in 3), purse $1,000 (unfinished): Alcyfras, ro. m., Alcryon-Sassafras, by Almont Boy, won first heat; Walter Hal, g. h., Walter Direct-Duck, by Brown Hal, won second heat. Best time, 2:04¼.

NEW FIRST SACKER MAY BE SECURED

Manager Jordan on the Outlook for a Good Man.

Now that the deals for Hyder Barr and "Dock" Johnston have been blocked the local management is hard on the hunt for a good first baseman. There are a couple of class D first basemen available, but these are not the men that Atlanta is after.

What Manager Jordan wants is a good experienced first-sacker, one that can hold down the sack without jeopardizing the pennant changes. There is a deal of some nature pending, though the exact nature is not known. However, it is one which, if pulled through, will make the Crackers strong enough to be in the fight right to the last.

NORFOLK TEAM MAKES A RECORD

Shuts Out the Roanoke Team Three Consecutive Games, Making a Record.

Norfolk, Va., August 2.—The Norfolk team of the Virginia League, by blanking the Roanoke team three consecutive times, breaks all records of the Virginia League, and possibly equals records of other leagues.

During the 27 innings played only one Roanoke player reached third base and in two of the games only 29 men faced the Norfolk pitcher in each game.

Norfolk won the games by scores of 4 to 0, 6 to 0 and 3 to 0.

Roanoke only made ten hits in the three games, while Norfolk made 25. The Norfolk pitchers who scored a shut-out each are Walsh, Ryan and Vance.

DEATH WILL GET GANS ERE HE REACHES HOME

The Former Champion Admits That He Has Lost Hope.

La Junta, Col., August 3.—Joe Gans, former lightweight champion, rushing across the continent in an effort to reach his home in Baltimore and see his mother before he dies, has given up hope of reaching home alive.

Gans is dying of consumption.

"I'm going fast," he said to friends here today.

"I won't take any chance by stopping in Chicago."

The trip over the Raton mountains affected the former champion greatly and restoratives had to be given repeatedly in order to prevent total collapse.

Bronwood Wins.

Bronwood, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Bronwood defeated Parrott here this afternoon in an exciting game of ball, score 7 to 5. The feature of the game was the batting of H. and F. Williams, the former getting three hits, the latter a home run in the ninth. Batteries for Bronwood, Stapleton, C. Williams and Gunnels; for Parrott, Langston and Rabon. Umpire, Berry. Time, 1:45.

M'ALEER WILL LEAD THE SENATORS IN 1911

BY DUDLEY PORTER.

James P. McAleer will be the manager of the Washington baseball club in 1911, and probably for a number of years afterward. When McAleer went to Washington, it was announced that his one-year contract was an experiment. The experiment has been a success in the eyes of President Tom Noyes, Vice President Ed Walsh, Secretary Ben Minor, and other officials and stockholders of the club.

The owners are more than pleased with McAleer as a baseball man and with his personality. This is no fulsome boost for James, but a plain statement of fact.

The best evidence that the club is much taken with him and has no idea of letting him go is that the arrangements for finding a training ground for next season have been left in his hands, and he and the directors are working hand-in-glove on the proposition to get all or a part of the Boston Americans' training facilities at Hot Springs next March.

If the Hot Springs scheme goes wrong, then it has already been left to McAleer to find some other place.

Even should the Washington team strike a horrible slump and fall from its present position to last place, McAleer's hold on his job will not weaken, for the owners are convinced that he has done all that was possible with the material that was at hand, and has really produced highly gratifying results from the talent turned over to him at the beginning of the season. Moreover, McAleer's method of treating his men has been such that while he has been the boss and stands for no foolishness, he has smoothed the sensitive and encouraged the slumpers, in a manner that has kept the team trying its best, and more or less full of fight, even when the prospects were dreariest.

Lawrenceville Wins.

Lawrenceville, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Lawrenceville defeated the Phi Alpha Taus, of Atlanta, for the second time yesterday on the home diamond, the score being 7 to 4. Saturday the score was 3 to 4. The team goes to Monroe tomorrow, having previously beaten that town twice in succession on their grounds. Of the fourteen games played this season, Lawrenceville has lost only three. The prettiest triple play ever witnessed here was pulled off Tuesday by the Atlanta boys, and they were warmly applauded.

Lawrenceville has four excellent pitchers in Montgomery, McConnell, Kelley and Holt, while Poe, catcher, has no superior as an amateur. The entire line-up would do credit to any town and they propose to remain at the top. Manager Frank Taylor has arranged for a game here next Saturday with the All Stars, of Atlanta.

100 Games for Climbers.

The Montgomery Climbers were the first Southern League team to show up with 100 games in the percentage column. In fact, they are the first team in any of the five leagues whose standing is carried by The Constitution that has one hundred games played to its credit.

DISEASES OF MEN

DR. WM. M. BAIRD.

If I have some decided and original views on these diseases it is because I have been continuously in the work for 33 years, and for 25 years have devoted my whole time to these difficult and delicate cases.

I believe that many cases of stricture may be cured with less harsh treatment than they often receive. I believe this because I have demonstrated it again and again.

I believe that Syphilis needs not only the proper remedies, but careful, intelligent methods and attention to detail in order to cure and cure permanently.

I believe that Chronic Gonorrhoea causes more physical wrecks than any other diseases. I believe this because I know. I believe that nothing needs more scientific methods in order to cure, and the man who suffers from it knows, too, that I am right.

I believe in straightforward advertising and honest business methods, combined with conscientious treatment, and if you are in need of advice, and will appreciate that kind of service, I will take pleasure in examining you free of charge.

Office hours: 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.; Sunday, 10 to 1.

My booklets, "Diseases of Men" and "Health Essays," sent sealed and in plain wrapper on request.

I have been practicing in Atlanta longer than any advertising specialist here or any firm of advertising specialists. Any statements to the contrary are unequivocally false.

PROBE CONTINUES IN WASSER CASE

At the examination into the charges against Meat Inspector Abraham Wasser before the board of health, and the council committee on sanitary affairs, held last night in the council chamber at the city hall, thirteen witnesses, both for the prosecution and defense, were introduced, and when the hour of adjournment came it was decided to continue the examination on Friday at 6 p. m., at which time it is thought the case will be concluded.

The first witness introduced was Mrs. Thomas Hopkins, by the defense, who denied the statement of C. J. Witherspoon, made on Tuesday night, to the effect that in a conversation he heard Wasser say he "couldn't make cases against the packing house, because they kicked." Mrs. Hopkins said that no such remark was made while she was present. Nathan Frolich, a butcher, in whose shop the conversation is supposed to have happened, stated he could not remember anything that was said, for he did not pay much attention to the talkers.

The defense introduced F. E. Kehrer, manager of the Jacob Dold Packing Company, at whose place the 'alleged unsound" meat was purchased by J. T. Mitchell, and which Inspector Wasser, at first, is said to have passed as sound, and when it got to Mitchell's shop, as bad. He stated that he thought the inspector a very capable man; that he had not made any case against his company regarding bad meat. He also said the inspector jumped on him about the particular piece of meat in question before it had ever been delivered to Mitchell. J. R. Gluck, an employee of the Jacob Dold Company, practically stated the same as Mr. Kehrer.

Witnesses Upheld Wasser.

L. J. Callahan, manager for the Armour Company, said he thought the inspector to be a competent man; that he had never made any cases against the Armour Company. W. S. Terrell, salesman for Armour, said he considered the inspector to be fair and impartial. Henry Durand, the well-known restaurant man, also agreed with the other witnesses.

For the prosecution T. A. Conger declared he did not consider Wasser "much of an inspector." He also stated the inspector came to see him two or three weeks ago, and asked him to endeavor to "squash" the case against him.

J. A. Bullock declared he examined the corn beef at the market of W. F. Morrell, which had been condemned by the inspector, and found it to be sound.

W. R. Jones, city slaughter house inspector, testified he found the corn beef sound.

Charles Goldin said the inspector condemned some of his hams, and he therefore, asked him to make a case against Swift & Co., who sold them to him. He said the inspector later stated his superior officers instructed him not to make the cases.

W. O. Wilson testified the inspector condemned meat at his place, and then allowed him to sell it; that the next morning he condemned the shank bone of this piece of meat, and that after it was referred to Dr. Kennedy, the inspector withdrew charges.

MANY TOWNS GREET SCOUTS

By Frank Weldon.

Athens, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—The pathfinding party reached Athens at 7 o'clock tonight. The party left Augusta this morning, stopped at Thomson and conferred with the people there, who were glad to see the scouts. We had dinner at Washington, and stopped at Lexington and Crawford on the way over here. Lexington had planned a barbecue, but did not know just when we would arrive.

The roads were good from Augusta to the Columbia county line, and from Thomson to Athens. The Columbia line is poor, and several miles in McDuffie are rough.

Wilkes Roads Good.

The line through Wilkes is better than we expected. Oglethorpe county has recently put the road from Crawford to the Clarke line in good shape. Ordinary Gheesling, of McDuffie, and Commissioner John Calloway, of Wilkes, have cooperated in improving the roads from Thomson to Washington, so that the route is better now that it has been in a long time. People were awaiting the car's arrival all along the way a few miles out of Lexington.

Scouts Are Feasted.

J. S. Bacon, E. T. Howard and E. B. Clarke hailed us and filled the car with grapes and peaches as an evidence of the appreciation felt by the farmers of Oglethorpe for The Constitution and its work for good roads.

M. J. Abbey and Carl Vonderlith, of Athens, representing the Athens motorists, met us at Crawford and piloted the Buick to the Classic City. At Athens all were joined by L. B. Flatau, Max Michael, Dr. Fullilove and others. Mayor Rowe and a large delegation of Crawford citizens were waiting for us.

Mayor Barksdale, B. Ficklin, E. W. Hill, James Binson, A. S. Chapman and many others gave us a cordial welcome at Washington.

Change of Route Favored.

Nashville, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Automobilists and citizens generally are deeply interested in the proposed change in the state automobile route which includes Nashville. The public roads from Valdosta to Nashville, 28 miles, are in splendid condition and Nashville to Douglas, 34 miles, in good average condition. There are no such unfavorable streams and watery roads as the scout car encountered in Clinch, Charlton, Ware and Pierce counties.

Nashville-Douglas Road Good.

Douglas, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Roads are in good condition from Nashville to Douglas via Willacoochee and from Douglas to Waycross, but not to Baxley. Several unbridged streams to be crossed.

There is no trouble in reaching Waycross from here.

CLARKE BREAKS WORLD'S MILE MARK

Salt Lake City, Utah, August 3.—The unpaced mile record for bicyclists, which has stood for nine years, was broken here last night by A. J. Clarke, of Australia, who made the distance in 1:52. In the 2-mile handicap Clarke lowered his own world's record of 3:40 to 3:38 1-5.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL THE MARKETS

NEW CROP MONTHS ADVANCE 25 POINTS

High Temperatures in Texas and Oklahoma Make Cotton Prices Higher.

New York, August 3.—The eyes of the entire cotton trade were turned towards Texas and Oklahoma today and much of the advance of full 25 points on new crops was due to the continued dry, hot weather in those states. The market closed steady at 19 to 26 points net advance.

The opening was firm at an advance of 10 to 11 points on near positions and 11 to 12 points on new crops, due primarily to the unexpected strength at Liverpool, where the adverse Texas situation appeared to have had even more influence than it did here. From this beginning there was an almost unbroken advance throughout the entire session with a broadening speculative demand, including some heavy purchases for Wall street people, who had sold out on the government report and wanted to replace their lines. Southern bulls were also heavy buyers of new crop positions. Not only were mills active buyers of futures during the day, but they were also reported as being in the market for spots, owing to a much improved demand for goods. One house having mill connections here and abroad purchased upwards of 25,000 bales of new crops today, while another firm, which frequently represents spot interests, has bought upwards of 150,000 bales of new crops in the last month. Private reports concerning the situation in Texas were little short of sensational, as temperatures were again around 100 to 108 maximum and fully equal to the highest temperatures of last year, while in Oklahoma they were said to have broken all government records; the reports claiming that the crop was deterionating found ready acceptance.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 1,461 bales, against 2,277 last week and 522 last year. For the week 18,000 bales, against 20,780 last week and 10,257 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 290 bales, against 202 last year and at Houston, 311 bales, against 165 last year.

Cotton spot closed quiet 15 points higher; middling uplands, 15.45; middling gulf, 15.70; sales, 3,100 bales.

Argo, Jester & Co.

New York, August 3.—The market opened at a good advance, in response to cables, which were very strong, and reported an active demand, in consequence of unfavorable advices from Texas. There was some selling by local traders for reaction, but their cotton was taken so readily and prices remained so firm that they became discouraged and covered, sending prices higher. It seems useless to look for any decline of importance under the existing conditions, with the trade daily growing more anxious over the situation in Texas and ready to buy on any trifling setback. The market may become overbought and open to attack in that way, but the long interest is not to any extent of a speculative character and it will be hard to dislodge it. It may be that the market has had its decline for the present and at any rate there is nothing in the situation on which to sell, except the possibility of rain in Texas, and it is getting late for even those to have much effect.

Liverpool is due to open four points up.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, August 3.—With improved spot demand in Liverpool and a better tone in Manchester, and good cables, buying began here at the outset, and despite large realizing sales, the advance was held to the close. The feeling in general trade is more optimistic and an analysis of the bureau figures suggests a moderate if not a short crop. Texas still has intense heat, 106 to 110 degrees in some places, and rains must come within a week or the results will be disastrous. Liverpool and Texas are the controlling factors. Indications of cooler weather in the far southwest over night was a check to aggressive buying.

Liverpool Cotton.

Liverpool, August 3.—Closing: Cotton, spot moderate business done; prices 3 points higher; American middling fair 8.64; good middling 8.34; middling 8.20; low middling 8.10; good ordinary 7.84; ordinary 7.59. The sales of the day were 8,000 bales, of which 500 were for speculation and export and included 7,100 American. Receipts 11,000 bales, including 10,800 American. Futures opened and closed steady.

Dry Goods.

New York, August 3.—The cotton goods market was firm and selling was of a moderate character for spot and nearby deliveries to printers, converters and the manufacturing trades. Jobbers are still from hand-to-mouth. The jobbers had an active day at special dress goods sales. Knit goods are quiet. There is very light ordering of silks by the retail trade.

PRESSURE OF SELLING TO REALIZE PROFITS

Stocks Declined on That Account—United States Steel Makes a Rally.

New York, August 3.—The stock market today disclosed its narrow limitations under circumstances as they exist. The sharp rebound of the day before seemed to exhaust the demand from the shorts and there was no news forthcoming of a positive nature. While there was no renewal of too urgent selling, which has aroused the suspicion of forced liquidation from time to time, there was a pressure of stocks for sale to realize profits on the rebound of yesterday. Sales were in moderate volume, but the demand had become so feeble and languid that no absorptive medium was provided and prices gave way. Here and there were strong special movements, but the sustaining influence on the general list was very moderate. Measures of support by the larger financial interests seemed to be withdrawn for a time after the warning administered to the bear party that they would not be permitted to pursue aggressions on market values without opposition. Before the close of the day the rehuirements of the shorts asserted themselves again and caused a recovery of most of the day's declines.

The money market offered nothing to supply the depressive influence on stocks. Movement of cash into New York bank reserves continues on a large scale. The gain for the week of $4,183,000 in subtreasury is helped by larger deferred pavements from the assay office for gold arriving from London. Additional shipments are arriving and yesterday's engagement of over $3,000,000 in London remains to go into account. An existing actual surplus reserve of upwards of $50,000,000, computed from last Saturday's actual surplus over $47,000,000, seems a warrantable assumption from these figures. The withdrawal of gold had the effect of hardening the private discount rate in London today, but the excess value of loans on time in New York over London remains so wide that continued movement of gold is indicated.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,444,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

1910 CODE BOOK.

A book which will prove of great value to those interested in operations on the New York and Boston Curb markets, is the private code book for 1910, just issued by Charles A. Stoneham & Co., New York and Boston. In addition to a complete cipher code the volume contains exhaustive directions for market operations. It shows the price range from 1907 to the first of April, 1910, on curb, mining and miscellaneous securities and is a compendium of useful information, arranged for ready reference.

London Stock Market.

London, August 3.—American securities opened about unchanged from yesterday's New York closing. Light support advanced prices until near the end of the forenoon, when realizing caused a reaction, and most of the gains were lost. At noon the market was easy, with values ranging from ⅛ above to ¾ below parity. New York buying helped the market in the forenoon, and the closing was steady a fraction below the best.

WHEAT PRICES JUMP ON SHORT YIELD NEWS

The Market Closed Firm and 7-8 to 1 1-4 Cents Higher.

Chicago, August 3.—Efforts today to realize profits on previous short selling of wheat resulted in a net advance of ⅞ to 1¼c. There was also good buying on the part of spreaders operating here and in northwestern markets. The latest quotations showed corn ⅛c higher to ⅛c lower and oats unchanged to ⅛c up. Provisions finished at last night's level to 12½c above.

In consequence of being in an oversold condition, wheat was much more responsive to bullish than to bearish news. One of the factors in producing an upturn was a report by the government of France indicating a crop in that country 11,000,000 bushels less than the smallest yield in recent years. The Liverpool market was unexpectedly firm, and so were prices at Winnipeg. A well-known local crop expert estimated the harvest output in Illinois to be much below the figures with which the state grain dealers surprised the trade yesterday. Furthermore, until the session neared an end acceptances of bids for new wheat in the country were relatively scarce. Opinion gained ground, however, that the movement is good for two weeks yet. Cash wheat in the sample market today was somewhat firmer, premiums rising a trifle. The September option ranged from $1.01 to $1.02⅛, closing firm at $1.01¾@1.01⅞ to $1.01⅞, a rise of ⅞@1 to 1⅛, compared with twenty-four hours previous.

Campaigners on the bull side rallied corn prices today after a decline, due to rains and temporary coolness. The weather was said to be rapidly warming up again. September fluctuated between 61¾ and 62⅝c, with the close firm at 62¼c, as against 62⅛c to 62⅜c last night.

In oats the deferred months exhibited a better tone than September, which was a little at a disadvantage on account of expectation that receipts would increase here and elsewhere the coming week. High and low points for the September delivery were unusually near together, 36⅞c and 36⅛c, with the close precisely the same as yesterday, 36⅝@36¾c.

Scanty supplies at leading centers made provisions firm. Arrivals of live hogs, too, were lighter than had been looked for. At the wind up pork was unchanged to 12½c higher, lard 7½c to 12½c and ribs 10c to 12½c.

AUTO SERIOUSLY INJURES YOUNG MAN

Athens, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—For careless driving of his automobile, Dr. W. M. Slaughter, a prominent dentist of this place, was fined $100 by the mayor this morning. A case was ordered made also against A. B. Carter, with whom it was alleged Dr. Slaughter was apparently racing up Prince avenue when the latter's car struck and critically injured the only son of J. J. Wilkins, president of the Georgia National bank, of this city. The young man is resting fairly well today, but is not out of danger.

Hawes Indorsed.

Elberton, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) While there is no local or county contest on this county and section is full of warm politics. The governor's race is attracting less attention than any heretofore. That for congress seems to be the real center, both sides claiming victory. The entire county and section is well nigh unanimous for Hon. P. M. Hawes for state treasurer. He is more nearly publicly indorsed by his home people than any candidate for office Elbert county has ever had.

$10,000 IS GIVEN TO SANITARIUM

County Keeps Promise to City to Aid Tuberculosis Institution.

The Fulton county commissioners yesterday ordered that $10,000 be paid into the city treasury to aid in the erection of the city tuberculosis sanitarium, the donation being made in conformity with an agreement between the city and county commissioners whereby each were to appropriate that amount to the sanitarium.

On motion of Commissioner Palmer, the commissioners pledged themselves to cooperate with the city in building a viaduct over the railroad tracks at Bellwood avenue.

Upon motion of Commissioner Forrest Adair, it was ordered that the county extend the bitulithic paving on DeKalb avenue or Decatur street from Delta Place, provided the city will pay into the county treasury $1 per running foot after the work is completed, and the county agreed also to pave Euclid avenue from Elizabeth street to Moreland avenue on the same conditions.

A communication from F. J. Paxon, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in regard to an interstate highway between Atlanta and Jacksonville, Fla., was read, the letter calling attention to a suggestion made by the Jacksonville board of trade that all counties between the two cities cooperate in such a project.

Secretary Wood was instructed to say that the Fulton commissioners will cooperate, and to call attention to the fact that the county has already actually completed its portion of the highway to the county line.

On motion of Commissioner Palmer, 100 yards of crushed stone were donated to the Georgia School of Technology, to be used in the construction of its new building.

Albany, Ga., August 3.—The first bale of Georgia cotton of the season was marketed here this morning. It was grown by M. A. McRainey, of Elmodel, Baker county, one of the most prosperous farmers in southwest Georgia. The new bale weighed 412 pounds and was classified as middling. It was sold through C. B. Tyler to the Georgia Cotton Company, of this city, and brought 30 cents. It was expressed to Savannah at noon and auctioned.

The first bale for this year is seven days later than last year.

GEORGIA MILITIA HIGHLY PRAISED

Georgia Boys Made the Best Showing, Says General Mills.

Just back from a month's stay at Chickamauga Park, where he saw the militia from practically every southern state, General A. L. Mills, commander of the department of the gulf, yesterday paid the Georgia brigade, commanded by General Clifford L. Anderson, of this city, a most glowing tribute. Of all the troops which gathered at Chickamauga, those from Georgia made considerably the best showing, the general states.

"While in Chickamauga," said the general in discussing the matter, "troops from Florida, Mississippi, Alabama Georgia, Tennessee, North Carolina and South Carolina were from time to time in the school of instruction. And I feel safe in saying that I voice not only my own sentiment, but that of the other regular army officers when I say that the showing made by the Georgia troops was better than that made by the men from any other state.

"South Carolina had two crack regiments in camp, as did North Carolina, but even these failed to come entirely up to the showing made by the Georgia brigade.

"The discipline among the Georgia troops was exceedingly good, the men were, so far as we were able to judge, well instructed, and the officers efficient.

"But the fact which impressed itself most favorably upon the minds of the regular officers and the instructors was the cheerful spirit in which both the officers and the enlisted men of the Georgia brigade received the advice of their instructors."

$100,000 ESTATE DIVIDED BY WILL

Will of Mrs. Elizabeth S. Spink Admitted to Probate.

The will of Mrs. Elizabeth S. Spink was filed in the court of ordinary yesterday by Burton Smith, attorney for the executors, and was admitted to probate in common form. The executors are F. B. Spink, Bernard C. Spink and R. C. Spink, sons of the deceased. They immediately qualified.

Mrs. Spink left an estate estimated at $100,000, consisting of several hundred acres of valuable land at Bolton, Ga. On her estate was located the town of Riverside.

Application was made for probate of the will in solemn form.

After making a special legacy of $5,000 to William C. Spink, a son, the remainder of the estate is divided equally between the four surviving children of the deceased.

Mrs. Spink has lived at Bolton ever since the war, where she and her husband during his lifetime were respected and liked by the entire community.

Her father, Obadiah Thompson, was one of the early landowners in this part of the country, having bought and settled there many years before the war.

Edward Floding and J. A. Floding have made application for a charter under the name of the Floding Lodge Supply Company. Capital stock, $25,000.

Robert Garnett, William S. Adler and Armand May have asked a charter as the Adler-May Cotton Products Company. Capital stock, $25,000.

L. H. Cox, C. E. Johnson and M. L. Clifton ask a charter as L. H. Cox Company. Business, dry goods, etc. Capital stock, $5,000.

W. M. Wolcott, D. A. Pirkle and Aldine Chambers ask a charter as the R. I. M. Company. Business, manufacture and sale of patent medicines. Capital stock, $10,000.

A. H. Bancker and W. H. Jones want a charter as the Washington Park Company. Business, real estate. Capital stock, $10,000.

Judge W. D. Ellis yesterday granted charters to the following concerns:

Snap-Life Company, J. O. Fleece and others, incorporators. Capital stock, $75,000.

Progressive Realty Company, Dabney Scoville and others, incorporators. Capital stock, $100,000.

The York Manufacturing Company has filed suit for $103.50 on account against E. C. Atkins, W. C. Hundley, M. K. Haralson, as the Aragon Company, for supplies furnished to the hotel. Judge W. D. Ellis signed an order Wednesday instructing the receiver of the Aragon Company to bring all receipts given by John T. Pendleton, executor of the Collier estate, to W. C. Hundley for rental of the Aragon, into court before Judge George L. Bell on August 11.

The ordinary of Fulton county was notified yesterday of the governor's acceptance of the resignation of M. L. Brittain from the board of county commissioners, and the formal order was given for an election to fill the vacancy on August 2. E. C. Merritt is the only candidate for election.

DENIES LIVINGSTON EVER SENT TELEGRAM

A. J. McGahee Adds Another Chapter to Issue Raised by Mr. Howard.

A. J. McGahee, of Lithonia, has written The Constitution another statement, denying that the telegram purported to have been sent by Representative L. F. Livingston, on January 8, 1908, to "Jack McGee" was ever received by him. He brands Mr. Howard's statement about the affair as "absolutely false and untrue."

The issue which Mr. McGahee—he says he does not know any "Jack McGee"—seeks to dispose of, was raised by William Schley Howard, who is opposing Colonel Livingston for congress, in a speech delivered in Lithonia. Mr. Howard said Colonel Livingston had sent the following telegram from Washington on January 8, 1908:

"Jack McGee, Lithonia, Ga.—Now, boys, if you lose the postoffice don't blame me. Wages too high."

Mr. McGahee says no such message was sent to him, and he denied it twice publicly during Mr. Howard's speech. In his letter he copies an affidavit from Frank Cagle, agent of the Western Union Telegraph office at Lithonia, denying that any such message was received; also a letter from J. M. Stephens, a superintendent of the telegraph company, saying there is no record of any such message in the company's files. Mr. McGahee says:

"Mr. Howard's statement is absolutely false and untrue, and he knew it to be false and untrue when he made it."

He refers to C. M. Goddard's affidavit published in an Atlanta newspaper last Sunday, and says it is false and untrue. In reply he quotes a telegram from Charles S. Smith, secretary of the Stone Mountain branch of the Stonecutters' Union, dated January 7, and saying the union had voted unanimously for a wage scale of $3 a day. This action, Mr. McGahee says, was taken two days before the "fake telegram purporting to come from Colonel Livingston to me."

Politics Hot in Monroe.

Juliette, Ga., August 3.—(Special.)—Politics are getting warmer and warmer in Monroe county. It seems that the voters of the county are manifesting more interest in both county and state politics than in many years, and everybody is predicting that the biggest vote in the history of the county will be polled in the approaching primary. The county school commissioners' race and the legislative race will probably be the most heated in the history of this county, and many other races for county offices will be in doubt until the last ballot is counted.

LAUNDRY SHOWS HOW WORK IS DONE

Capital City Introduces Novelty in the Laundry Field.

The Capital City Laundry, 128-130 Whitehall street, has introduced the first novelty of its kind in the south by installing an exhibition collar room in which the extremely fascinating process of laundering collars and cuffs may be seen from the sidewalk at all hours of the day. Those who have never seen the interior of a modern laundry cannot realize the great care with which every detail must be arranged to keep the business abreast with modern progress, and the interest with which the public daily gathers in front of the exhibition room, in which uniformed girls combine the latest mechanical appliances with skill born of long experience, to transform hundreds of damp, wilted freshly-washed collars into neatly starched, ready-to-wear linen, evidences the popularity with which the Capital City Laundry's scheme is being received.

The exhibition room itself is large, sanitary, handsomely appointed and fitted out in every detail in keeping with the most modern of laundries. The entire front end is separated from the sidewalk by plateglass, through which the complete process of laundering is revealed to any who care to witness the interesting process. Every detail, from the time the collars are received from the washing room and start on their journey through various machines, to be turned out as they are received from the laundry, is in full view, and to follow the trip of a collar around the room is like seeing a play.

In Immense Vats.

When the soiled collars are first brought to the laundry they go into immense vats in which they are thoroughly cleaned, and on leaving these are placed into rotary machines in which the water is sucked out. Then, after being starched, they are suspended on a long traveling conveyor chain, which loops about through a room heated to an intense degree by steam pipes which dry them, into the ironing room, where the public gets its glimpse.

The traveling chain enters the ironing room at the extreme rear, and the hanging collars are reflected in a mirror on the back wall, so that they may be plainly seen.

The first preparation for ironing is to place the linen in dampening machines, where it is sprinkled, and then transferred to a press for about two hours to give the water time to saturate the collars thoroughly and evenly.

Then comes the huge Sharp's Monarch ironing machine, the largest collar ironer in the south, on which the freshly starched collars are spread out, straightened and ironed flat by being passed between massive rollers.

The stiff, flattened collar is then removed to the seam dampener, where the seam is carefully dampened just enough to enable the collar to be folded for wearing. Following this, the collar is run through over a steam jet and through a folder, which makes the collar, to all appearances, ready for wearing. However, the Capital City people, not content with this, carry it a step further, and the edges are finished and carefully rounded out by hand.

As complete and interesting a process of laundering has never been placed before the public in the south, and Manager George H. Fauss has spared no pains to make the exhibition room interesting to the public. Over the sidewalk an immense awning shades those who linger to see the laundry in operation, and the nearness to the business center of the city makes it convenient for many to see just how their laundry is treated while away from home.

DIRECTORS VOTE FOR CORN SHOW

A resolution looking to the holding of a corn show in Atlanta in the Auditorium in November or December, with exhibits from all sections of the state, was adopted by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon.

The resolution came in the form of a report of the Chamber of Commerce committee on agriculture. The idea, it is understood, originated with Colonel Sam Dunlap, a member of both the State Agricultural Society and the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. Colonel Fred J. Paxon, president of the Chamber of Commerce, under the provisions of the resolution, will appoint a committee to devise plans for the show.

NEGROES TO ENJOY MUSIC FESTIVAL

One Thousand Seats Reserved Tonight at Auditorium for Whites.

The music festival to be held at the Auditorium tonight is the first held in the history of the colored race in the south.

It is an enterprise entirely of negroes; the projectors and artists are all of the colored race. The projectors are leading colored men of this city, and the artists are the very best of the race in the whole country.

The negro is naturally musical, and with proper training there is no reason why he should not reach a high degree of efficiency in this esthetic art.

The official program, as given out, includes a variety of classical and popular music, so that it will appeal to all. Much of the music, particularly that of the Jubilee Singers, will be peculiar to the colored race.

This occasion will afford the white people a chance to observe the negro at his best. One thousand seats have been set apart for whites, and the mayor has accepted an invitation to be present.

It is gratifying to note that in many cases employers are purchasing tickets for their colored employees, and some are letting off their servants at an early hour.

The proceeds of the entertainment go toward the support of the institutional facilities of the First Congregational church.

The features of the program will be the appearance of Douglas, the violinist; Pearl Wimberly, the soprano; Burleigh, the great negro baritone; the Fisk Jubilee Singers, and an Atlanta chorus.

SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN SUMTER'S RETURNS

Increase in Property Values Attributable to Good Roads.

Americus, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Five hundred thousand dollars represents the increase in property values in Sumter county this year as announced from the tax receiver's office this afternoon.

This substantial gain is attributed largely to enhancement of farming land values as result of good roads in Sumter.

Values having doubled and trebled within two years, Sumter's property values now exceed $7,000,000.

BANKSTON TOO LATE IN ENTERING RACE

Chairman Pendleton, of State Committee, Rules on Troupe County Question.

LaGrange, Ga., August 3.—(Special.) Editor W. T. Bankston, of West Point, was today barred from entering the race for the legislature in Troup county by Chairman Charles R. Pendleton, of the state democratic executive committee, because his entry into the campaign was made too late, according to the committee's ruling. The action from Chairman Pendleton came in a response to a query sent by the secretary of the Troup county executive committee.

Mr. Bankston, yielding to requests from many West Point friends throughout the county, came to LaGrange today and offered his assessment, announcing his intention of entering the race. The county secretary took the matter up with Mr. Pendleton by wire with the result above stated. Mr. Bankston is editor of The West Point News.

CAPITOL OPERATOR PASSES LIVELY HOUR

Telegrams to Legislators From Watson Marked "Collect" by Mistake.

The telegraph operator at the capitol performed some lively maneuvers yesterday morning for about an hour. The occasion of his excitement was several collect messages he received on Tuesday from Thomson, Ga., and on all but one of which he collected $2.23 in coin of the realm.

One message was addressed to Hon. John Johnson, senator from the nineteenth, and a great admirer of the sender, Hon. Thomas E. Watson. The messages called on the recipients to put through the resolution of Representative J. P. Elder about firing the negro collector of customs at Atlanta.

There was nothing particularly new in this, for everybody knew how Mr. Watson stood on that question. But why send the messages collect? The $2.23 worried the recipients of the collect telegrams.

Senator Slater, of the first district, could not figure out that the information was worth $2.23 to him, and he turned back the message.

Wednesday morning the operator circled around in lively fashion and said a terrible mistake had been made, and that the messages should have been charged at the other end. He returned to Senator Johnson and the other gentlemen the amounts they had paid.

FOR SHERIFF.

In announcing myself a candidate for reelection as Sheriff of Fulton County, subject to primary August 23, 1910, I desire to express my sincere thanks to the citizens of the county for the honors conferred upon me in the past, and if my first term as Sheriff has met with your approval I earnestly solicit your vote and influence in the coming primary.
